

1956-57 GRADUATES

4-A

BEVERLEY ALDCROFT: We were sorry to see Bev. leave us just before Easter, for a school in Edmonton. During the past four years, everyone has known Bev. for her outstanding musical ability. We don't know what Bev. has in mind for the future, as yet. Best of luck, Bev.

MYRON BECKER: The proud possessor of a '47 Pontiac, "Beck", of the curly hair can be seen squiring a pretty miss. Myron is one of 4A's working boys. His future includes University, for a Pharmacist he'll be.

ANN BLAGER: Here is 4A's talented lassie, being a part-time music teacher as well as one of our top students. Ann is very sportsminded and works very hard at her music. She plans to attend Bible College before she begins her career of either teaching or nursing. Her happy disposition and her neatness will prove very valuable in either profession.

HARLEY BROWN: "Mort", renowned for his terrific work with an artist's brush and pen, left us at Christmas for the Stampede City of Calgary. Harley, as a musician of no ill repute, having played in the "Natural Seven," will succeed anywhere. Good luck, "Mort."

COLIN CAMERON: Cole believes: "wine, women and automobiles" make the world go round, and is always trying to live up to his terrific motto of "Eat, Drink and make Merry, for tomorrow we all shall die." A member of the Cyclones, he doesn't fare so badly in the brains dept.

ROBERTA CARLINE: 'Berta' was a great help with our lits this year. Her singing and part-time jobs keep her very busy, but she still manages to carry an extra subject. Next year she'll be a 'University Belle' at the U. of Alberta, then will embark on a career in Physiotherapy.

JOAN DOMVILLE: In her little Metropolitan, Joan has become the 'official chauffeur' of the 'gang.' During school hours, she can often be seen enjoying a good joke with her front-seat neighbor, while out of school she is an Usherette at a theatre. Her interests for the future are centered around a career of physiotherapy.

MARILYN FORSYTH: This petite Miss is a very diligent worker which is evident by her marks. She proved her exceptional speaking ability by winning the Sask. Bryant Oratorical contest this year. All Moose Jaw is proud of you, Marilyn! As yet her career plans are indefinite.

JESSIE GREENLAY: Jessie is known for her winning smile and pleasing personality. Sometimes school work gets her down, but she takes it all in good fun. She seems to have a knack for pulling down high marks in literature. We can honestly say, she'll make a very pleasant teacher.

ELAINE HALSTROM: Elaine scarcely has a spare moment to herself. She is working very hard for her A.R.C.T., as well as having a beautiful singing voice and numerous other musical interests. Her high marks and lady-like manners are noteworthy. Next year, Elaine plans to attend Teacher's College, and we couldn't imagine a more charming school marm.

EVELYN HOLDEN: Here is 4A's industrious one. She came to us this year from Lake Alma. Her activities out of school are many and varied. Three times a week, she went to Tech to study German in which she's a real expert. Evelyn plans to attend Luther Bible College next year.

DOUG HOWLETT: Doug, who comes to us each morning via the "Plow-boy Express," chums with Tony. His grin warms the room in the winter but his good math marks leave us cold. By the way he handles his "dukes", his secret ambition must be to be a prize-fighter.

JACK JOHNSON: Jack is often seen lounging in his corner of the room, sleeping blissfully. It seems everyone got moved out of his way. We wonder why? His duties at Safeway's earned him his unique nickname of "Jack, the Wrapper." Jack is one of the school's better curlers.

TONY KAMINSKI: Big Tony, of the booming voice enjoys spouting his ideas in Social period—to the dismay of Mrs. Groome, and the delight of 4A. The Tall Lefty is the recipient of friendly glances from his tutors. His willingness to work assures him a rosy future.

DAVE KEEGAN: Dave doesn't say much but his marks show us "he who laughs last, laughs best." Usually seen with a great pile of books which may be a cover up for his hours "au cinema," Dave waited till spring to get a crew cut — then it began to snow.

JACKIE KELCEY: Being our social vice-president, this year, Jackie made CCI dances the success they were. Her other activities included playing for the Rockettes and attending Job's Daughters. Jackie is known for enjoying a good laugh and having a ready smile for everyone. Her ambition is to be a teacher of renown.

DAN KELLER: the boy with the Elvis Presley haircut believes himself a Valentino. He has a riot showing everyone his fancywork from the Biology lab. He always has his homework done, whether he did it or not. Danny is a future teacher. (He hopes).

DENNIS KERR: One of Central's busiest boys, Den was a starry member of the Grads, a free-wheeling back for the Cyclones, a Briar curler and a bowler of renown. He can be seen at various times in various places with various misses at his side.

ARNOLD KRAUSE: Star of the Science Classes, Arn is new to Central this year, but he certainly gets along well with Mr. V. Predicted Future — Einstein No. 2.

JOAN LAPP: Joan manages to succeed in everything she attempts, being particularly successful as Business Manager of our 1957 Outlook. She is a top scholar as well as leading a very active life out of school. Everyone knows of her wardrobe of great selection—particularly in shades of brown. At present, her plans for the future are indefinite, but they'll be good.

DENNIS LATHAM: This talented musician is one of the two Latin students of grade twelve. He is the possessor of a bent nose, the gift of a friendly Notre Dame Lineman. Den is also known as a Scientific Wrestler and is the "Champ of 4A". A member of the Clowns, Den lives up to their name.

JOHN LIVINGSTON: "Liv" captained the Grads to a successful year, winning the league scoring championship in the process. As a backfielder for the Cyclones, John gained fame by his spectacular line plunges.

MARILYN MacINTOSH: Marilyn is 4A's pert, blue-eyed blonde. She always has a ready laugh for anything amusing. She practically leads a double life, staying here during the week-days, then spending the week-ends at home in Marquis. She plans to remain here next year to attend Teacher's College.

KAY MACKENZIE: Kay, a newcomer from Climax, was quick to become a member of the 'gang'. Her quiet sense of humour won her many friends immediately, and everyone was quick to find out that she was a good sport. Kay is going to Regina College, then plans to become a lab. technician.

GARY McLEOD: "Muh" started out with the Cyclones this year but the call of the almighty buck was too strong so he left. Although a star for the Celtics, his favorite haunt is the Connaught? His new seat is by himself at the front of the room.

DON McNAMEE: Back at Central to try again this year, Mac has made many new friends. Envied for his many spares, he is always talking of his bashes with his "U" buddies. He thinks he will end up as a professional loafer. A good dancer, Don is seldom without the company of a female.

4-A -- Concluded

RICH MANDZUK: The Outlook Editor for this year, Rich is also captain of the Celtics, an exceptional bowler and an excellent French student. Well known around Central, Rich is a buddy to all. His future includes University and success.

JOHN MURAKAMI: "Murk", a driving half-back for the Cyclones moved the yardsticks a la Normie Kwong. Famous for his "goodies" and terrific marks. He was Central's Mr. Football for 1956 and we couldn't be prouder. His future includes a trip to Saskatoon next year.

JERRY NOREN: After starting out with the Celtics, tragedy struck and he broke his arm. Jer's great battle is Math & Sciences vs. Soc. Studies & Literature. Famous for his bowling, he is notorious for his 2 notebooks, one of which is Chemistry.

CLARICE OLSON: Chem lab. incidents never cease to amuse her. Her life is kept busy with ushering at a theatre in the evenings. However, she still finds time for bowling and roller skating. Next year she'll invade Davidson's Business College, then will begin training to become 'a lady in white.' Oh, those lucky patients!

WAYNE PARK: Noted for his spare time directly after 4 P.M. (No Chemistry, you know), Wayne is a terrific bowler and is considered by some fools as a ladies' man. Wayne is conspicuous due to his shiny black hair which is always in place.

ETHEL PHILLIPS: This petite miss, the Grade Twelve representative for Miss Central, is the Outlook reporter for the 4A girls. Her warm smile and friendly greetings make her a friend of everyone. Ethel plans to be one of the child's worst enemies—a teacher.

JOAN POULTON: Joan left us at Christmastime to become a career girl. We hear that she finds banking in Calgary very interesting, although she comes back to Moose Jaw to see her friends occasionally.

DIANA RICHARDS: Although, rather quiet in school, 'Dee' still leads an active life out of school. She was skip of our girls' Briar Team this year. Coming from Regina, she found it difficult to understand all the 'overtime' we put in at school. Next year she's going in training for nursing, then she'll work for her M.D. Dee can do it!

GAIL RODWELL: Gail was our capable room-rep. and was also a member of 4A's 'lively corner.' A great many of her winter evenings have been occupied with basketball games. Next year she plans to be a Tech. student in a rapid commercial class. With this and her musical ability, we know Gail is bound to go places.

SHIRLEY SMITH: 'Smitty' is the bombshell at the back of the room. We all know her as an all-round athlete. In social studies she keeps the class in stitches, and then surprises the teacher with some of the top marks. We know she'll make some school a vivacious phys. ed. instructor one day.

MAIDRA SPICER: Maida is another member of the 'lively corner.' She, and her chum Diana have many common interests, particularly I.S.C.F. She plans to go to Bible School before she becomes a missionary in Africa. We feel sure that Maida will do much good Christian work.

ROGER TESSIER: "Tess" is one-half of Central's champion mixed-doubles bowling team. He has a terrific accent for Mr. McIvor's period. Roger is an aviation specialist, being the only one of us to hold a pilot's licence.

KEITH THOMPSON: Popular 'Flash' is a friend to all and of all. This year he was captain of our senior football team (an outstanding player, too!) boys' sports vice-president, and 4A's witty Outlook reporter. All jokes rate a good laugh with Flash. His future plans are indefinite, but girls he's an 'eligible bachelor.'

BOB YOUNG: "Our Bald-Headed Boy '57" played good basketball for the Rockets. His great joy is Chemistry (the test tubes aren't very strong, are they?)

4-B

WAYNE ANDERSON: Ambition — to corner the stock market. Famous for receiving anonymous telephone calls. Takes joy in arguing politics with Mr. V.

FRED ATTRIDGE: Fred, beside playing Basketball for the Celtics, was a Life Guard at the Y. Chemical Engineering is his destination for the future.

CHUCK CHOW: Besides being a very hard worker in school, Chuck works at the B.C. Fruit and would like to be an architect.

JIM DYKES: A very ardent curler, Jim has narrowly missed being on the Boys Brier for two years now. Jim wants to be a Mountie.

GEORGE GILLESPIE: George curled with his dad at nite and also keeps his marks above average. His future is still undecided.

TED HARWOOD: Ted is one of those silent men. He hopes to make it through Grade XII next year.

VEDA ATELL: A Friday bowler, a good one too, Veda plans to attend an American University in her practice as a Dental Hygienist.

BILL CHAPMAN: Bill spends much time keeping himself in shape as well as studying so he can get an ROTP scholarship.

VALERIE COATES: Val and Veda will make a grand twosome at the University of Minnesota. A popular student and a good friend Val is sure to succeed.

SYLVIA FREEMAN: Syl rates as a true friend. Anyone who knows her will vouch for this. An ardent curler, her plans lie in the unknown future.

RON GRAHAM: Ron was very active around the school this year, playing basketball, football, bowling and curling. He is planning on going to the University of Sask.

JOAN HODGINS: Joan deserves the medal of Honour for her perseverance in a fate worse than death! Sitting behind Dave. Well liked by all, Joan's future plans are with the Telephone Company.

DAVE HOPKINS: Hops makes many trips to Saskatoon besides keeping his marks up. He is the Pres. of the Student Council and is very active in sports and with his lico-ric stick.

RUTH HORNE: A Friday bowler and member of the Lit committee. Ruth plans to enter the business world in the not too distant future.

NANCY JOHNSTON: Literary Vice-President this year, Nan showed us what a Lit really is, T.V. and dramatics will light up her future.

ANGELA KOCH: Angie hails from Ormiston, and was taken into everybody's confidence upon arrival. Her future plans point toward a teacher's training.

LUCRETIA LOVERIDGE: Noted for her highland dancing art and teaching, Cretia delights us all with her sparkling laugh and jokes. Possibly a future school marm.

MEL MacDONNELL: Mel skipped a curling rink this year and he also holds a job when not attending school.

AL McKENZIE: Al played football and basketball, as well as skipping the Brier Rink and having one of the high averages in bowling. Al would like to take engineering at the University of Sask.

BARBARA McLEAN: 4B's capable room rep and giggler, Barb's future may take her on to a degree in Physical Education.

BRUCE MARSHALL: Played basketball for the Grads, and plans on taking Engineering at the University of Sask.

YVONNE OLSON: A member of the Lit Committee. Usually seen with Barb McLean. A bowler and also a curler. Her future looks bright for Teacher's College next year.

BETTY PORTER: Around central Betty participates in bowling and is a star on the Basket Babes. Her ambition is to take a comptometer course.

DON PROBERT: Leech skipped a curling team this year as well as being captain of a bowling team. Don you would like.

MARJORIE ROGERS: One of the school noon day diners, Marj will enter the business world as a "Chef de Coiffeur."

MARILYN SARGENT: Both a curler and a bowler, and also member of the Social Committee, Slug plans to be a Lab Technician.

4-B -- Concluded

TOM SHORTRIDGE: Shorty has interests at Tech as well as Central. He is a very good curler as he skipped a team this year and hopes to become a Mountie.

GERALDINE SILVERMAN: One of Central's Friday Bowlers and Curlers. Gerry gives a cheery note to brightening up the room. She plans to complete her Gr. 12 next year.

DAVE SINDHOLT: Dave came to C.C.I. from Weyburn. This year he spends most of his time working at Safeways, and plans to obtain a full time job after getting his grade 12.

RITA STEVENSON: A very able member of the newly formed United Nations Club. Her vocation—teletype operator at C.P.R.

BOB STEWARDSON: Stu was a line man on the football squad and plays trombone for the "Natural Seven". Bob would like to be a politician.

BOB TAUBER: Louie ran a close second in the Bryant Oratorical contest and has interest in 4A. Bob is looking forward to entering a college of Theology.

HAROLD THORNTON: Alias "Hairs". Another year at C.C.I. due to circumstances beyond his control. Favorite subject is Literature?

LAUREN TYSDAL: Our pretty blond Social Convener, can be seen boarding the bus for home at 4 every day. A course as a Lab Technician shines brightly for her future.

IAN WATLING: Ian spends much of his time with the Sea Cadets and obtains the highest marks in 4B. He would like to get an R.O.T.P. Scholarship.

MYRNA WHITEHEAD: Always seen with Glenys in school and out. Myrna contributes much to the cheerful atmosphere of the room. She plans to obtain an R.N. degree next year.

ANNE WOLANSKY: Anne left us before Christmas for the business world. Biology was her favorite subject. This girl really enjoyed her school days.

FERN WONG: Usually seen but not heard. Fern's vocation will take her into the wild blue yonder. A lilted laughing stewardess she will make.

GLENYS WOODROW: A member of the smiling few, Glenys can always be seen taxied around in a truck. Next year she plans to enter the profession of the "Girls in White."

DONNA WOODS: One of 4B's contributions to the Basket Babes—City Champs. Her favourite subject is Algebra. Her future's unknown, but whatever she does we know she'll succeed.
