

1957-58 GRADUATES

4-A

MARGARET AITKIN

Favorite saying: There goes Joe.
 Favorite pastime: Ask her and she won't tell.
 Noted for: Being the first one asked in Chemistry.
 Ambition: Nurse.
 Probable destination: Head bottle sterilizer in the hospital.

LILAS ALEXANDER

Favorite saying: Thar she blows!
 Favorite pastime: Always having cokes at the National.
 Noted for: Dreaming of far away places.
 Ambition: Lab Technician.
 Probable destination: Pickle packer in a pickle factory.

JOHN AMISS

Favorite saying: We had a rare time at the airport . . .
 Favorite pastime: Buying different size reeds for his sax.
 Noted for: His many talents including his great impersonations.
 Ambition: University graduate (undecided).
 Probable destination: Sax player for Lawrence Welk.

FRED ATTRIDGE

Favorite saying: Are you going downtown, Al?
 Favorite pastime: Brushing up on his Chem notes.
 Noted for: His red and white taxi.
 Ambition: Chemical engineer.
 Probable destination: Test tube blower.

BARBARA BAILEY

Favorite saying: Gee, you're stupid!
 Favorite pastime: dancing and hunting on weekends.
 Noted for: Her crazy mixed up French and Latin sentences.
 Ambition: Business college.
 Probable destination: Pencil sharpener for Walt Disney.

DONALD BELL

Favorite saying: But Mr. C., I haven't got that in my notes!
 Favorite pastime: Warming stools in the Chem Lab after four.
 Noted for: His alert driving.
 Ambition: Engineer.
 Probable destination: Railroad engineer.

RICHARD BIRLEY

Favorite saying: Won't you please, please join the Moose Jaw Astronomical Society?
 Favorite pastime: Star gazing and hypnotism.
 Noted for: His skilful worm dissections.
 Ambition: Psychiatrist
 Probable destination: Superintendent in a Mental Institution.

JOHN BLAIR

Favorite saying: Who's got some decent chemistry notes?
 Favorite pastime: Being a fish by driving around one of those new backward look fin cars.
 Noted for: His sharp clothes.
 Ambition: Interior designer.
 Probable destination: Smokestack painter.

DONELDA BYRNES

Favorite saying: Anytime now — anytime.
 Favorite pastime: Always looking for a certain car.
 Noted for: Her witty humour.
 Ambition: Nurse.
 Probable destination: Cleaning trucks for S.P.C.

ENID CANT

Favorite saying: We haven't found one yet.
 Favorite pastime: Rackets—tennis, that is.
 Noted for: Grade 9 and 10 ping-pong champion.
 Ambition: Airline stewardess.
 Probable destination: Cook in a hash-house.

PAT CONWAY

Favorite saying: Think of that!
 Favorite pastime: With Marilee somewhere.
 Noted for: Chewing gum in Biology classes.
 Ambition: Nurse.
 Probable destination: Nursing chickens on somebody's farm.

RALPH CRAWFORD

Favorite saying: It happens to the best of them.
 Favorite pastime: Wheeling a baby carriage down Main Street.
 Noted for: Biology marks.
 Ambition: Minister.
 Probable destination: Minister.

4-A — Continued

HEATHER DIMITRI

Favorite saying: I pass.
 Favorite pastime: Waiting for the weekends to come.
 Noted for: Her remarks in Chemistry.
 Ambition: Teacher.
 Probable destination: Prison warden at Sing Sing.

DOLORES DOBNEY

Favorite saying: Aw, heck!
 Favorite pastime: Meeting Moe at the 'Y'.
 Noted for: Sports, sports and more sports.
 Ambition: Undecided.
 Probable destination: Polishing curling rocks at the curling rink.

GERALDINE DUNCAN

Favorite saying: Have you any gum?
 Favorite pastime: Having herself a good time.
 Noted for: Those French classes.
 Ambition: Teacher.
 Probable destination: Scrubbing blackboards for a living.

BARRY FELSTEAD

Favorite saying: Oh, you're crazy, that's all wrong!
 Favorite pastime: greasin' up his slide rule.
 Noted for: His girl friends.
 Ambition: Engineer.
 Probable destination: Another Bob Cummings.

JOHN FRANCIS

Favorite saying: Quiet, I'm concentrating.
 Favorite pastime: Racking up 450's in bowling.
 Noted for: Conferences with Agnes.
 Ambition: Engineer.
 Probable destination: Prime Minister of Canada.

DAVE GEMMILL

Favorite saying: Luke, you going home now?
 Favorite pastime: Body-guard for Don Bell.
 Noted for: His battles over the use of the Physics Lab desks.
 Ambition: Nuclear-physical-chemical engineer.
 Probable destination: Laboratory reagent bottle filler.

ALAN GORANSON

Favorite saying: Ooh la la babaloo bop bopaloo, aluloo. How's that lyric sound?
 Favorite pastime: Having jam sessions with the boys.
 Noted for: Writing songs in his spare time.
 Ambition: Successful song writer and university degree.
 Probable destination: Piano tuner.

DONNA HANLAN

Favorite saying: Will you light our bunsen burner?
 Favorite pastime: She won't tell us.
 Noted for: Her jokes in Chemistry.
 Ambition: Lab technician.
 Probable destination: Head bunsen burner lighter in a Chem Lab.

MARILEE HARDY

Favorite saying: You've got rocks in your head!
 Favorite pastime: Tony's Purity 99 Service.
 Noted for: Her changing hairstyles.
 Ambition: Nurse.
 Probable destination: Head scrub woman at the clinic.

SHERILLE HINDMARSH

Favorite saying: Did you ever hear this joke?
 Favorite pastime: Cutting open those poor innocent creatures.
 Noted for: Her clicking heels.
 Ambition: Nurse.
 Probable destination: Head chicken cleaner in Super Market.

MORLEY JAHNKE

Favorite saying: Who, me?
 Favorite pastime: Parking cars on South Hill.
 Noted for: His private secretary.
 Ambition: Accountant.
 Probable destination: Roulette wheel operator in Monte Carlo.

GARY KEENAN

Favorite saying: Have you heard the latest hit? It goes like this . . .
 Favorite pastime: Feeding goodies to Wingle and the boys.
 Noted for: His wonderful impersonations of the torso movements of Elvis.
 Ambition: Music field.
 Probable destination: Juke box repairman for J.A.G. Studios.

LAYNE LARSEN

Favorite saying: This is how you write it in Greek.
 Favorite pastime: Challenging anyone in the Astronomy field.
 Noted for: Having his physics questions finished.
 Ambition: Nuclear physicist.
 Probable destination: Designer of first space ship.

PAT LATHAM

Favorite saying: Floccinaucinihilipilification!
 Favorite pastime: Working with the C.C.F. and talking politics.
 Noted for: Her high marks.
 Ambition: Too many to list.
 Probable destination: Sanitary engineer.

4-A — Continued

SHIRLEY LAWSON

Favorite saying: Ooohhh you guys!
 Favorite pastime: Riding in a red convertible.
 Noted for: Her giggle.
 Ambition: Teacher.
 Probable destination: Caretaker of the school.

SHIRLEY LEARD

Favorite saying: Boo!
 Favorite pastime: Watching Tailors play basketball.
 Noted for: Miss Cheerleader of '57-'58.
 Ambition: Airline stewardess.
 Probable destination: Chief kite flyer for Franklin.

ALICE MATHIESON

Favorite saying: Hoot mon!
 Favorite pastime: Playing the pipes in the Girls Pipe Band.
 Noted for: Her slaps on the back.
 Ambition: Nurse in the Air Force.
 Probable destination: Pigeon caretaker in a zoo.

KEN MITCHELL

Favorite saying: I'll write you an essay for two bucks.
 Favorite pastime: Going to parties and Temple Gardens over the weekend.
 Noted for: Always being with Jim somewhere around town.
 Ambition: Journalist.
 Probable destination: "Mad Magazine" distributor.

CATHERINE MCGEE

Favorite saying: Oh, Gary, really!
 Favorite pastime: Having friendly chit-chats in the hall.
 Noted for: Those nights with "Knight."
 Ambition: Nurse.
 Probable destination: Shining armour for a certain knight.

DONALD POULTON

Favorite saying: Perhaps you better quit that, Terry!
 Favorite pastime: Memorizing his Trig tables.
 Noted for: Always having the right answer in Mr. V's class.
 Ambition: Chemical Engineer.
 Probable destination: Physicist.

ALLAN QUAN

Favorite saying: I wasn't in the wrong in that accident!
 Favorite pastime: Wrecking beautiful new Buicks.
 Noted for: His bald head?
 Ambition: Psychiatrist.
 Probable destination: Two miles south of Moose Jaw (guest).

OAKLEY RANKIN

Favorite saying: Let's just check that over on my slide rule.
 Favorite pastime: Helping Ray out with his "bomb."
 Noted for: Keeping his glasses "a la mode."
 Ambition: Engineer.
 Probable destination: Slide rule salesman.

JOAN REPAYE

Favorite saying: Her silence is golden.
 Favorite pastime: Watching TV.
 Noted for: That holiday at Saskatoon.
 Ambition: Nurse.
 Probable destination: Nurse.

BENTON SEARCEY

Favorite saying: Oh, Shirley, don't pull my hair!
 Favorite pastime: Floating crap games at Safeway's.
 Noted for: Being quiet—! Once in a while, anyway.
 Ambition: Engineer.
 Probable destination: Soup - can piler for Safeway's.

MILTON SHAND

Favorite saying: Never trust a woman!
 Favorite pastime: Shining up his black limousine.
 Noted for: Building up his muscles (preferably fingers).
 Ambition: Salesman.
 Probable destination: Mr. America of 1963.

ELLEN SMITH

Favorite saying: Horrors!
 Favorite pastime: Staying in for Mr. C.
 Noted for: Having come from the States.
 Ambition: Nurse.
 Probable destination: Dissecting worms for Mr. N's collection.

HAROLD THORNTON

Favorite saying: Have you got a copy of the Canadian Constitution?
 Favorite pastime: Telling of his exploits in Toronto.
 Noted for: His many spares.
 Ambition: Airforce.
 Probable destination: Politician.

TERRY WASLEY

Favorite saying: How about a fight, Donald?
 Favorite pastime: Dozing in his desk.
 Noted for: Being a cool cat on a pair of skates.
 Ambition: Engineer.
 Probable destination: On the first line of the Montreal Canadians.

4-A — Concluded

BARRIE WIGMORE

Favorite saying: Do you know what the crazy C.C.F.'er's did?
 Favorite pastime: Selling hunks of leather he calls shoes at a certain department store.
 Noted for: His safe-driving techniques.
 Ambition: Multi-millionaire.
 Probable destination: Professional snooker player.

GARY WILLISON

Favorite saying: Now my theory is...
 Favorite pastime: Pounding dents out of his trumpet.
 Noted for: Imaginative and refreshing lifts.
 Ambition: Teacher.
 Probable destination: Trumpeter for Santa Anita Race Track.

JUNE WILSON

Favorite saying: Let's go to the 'A', girls.
 Favorite pastime: Basketball games at Teacher's College.
 Noted for: Hiding the boys' drinks at noon.
 Ambition: Lab technician.
 Probable destination: Chief test tube cleaner for Mr. C.

JOAN WINSOR

Favorite saying: Guess what time I had to get home?
 Favorite pastime: Looking for someone's car.
 Noted for: Fighting with Searcey.
 Ambition: Nurse.
 Probable destination: Hospital cleaning woman.

DIANA WRIGHT

Favorite saying: Hey gang!
 Favorite pastime: Laughing at the wrong time.
 Noted for: Miss Central of '57-'58.
 Ambition: Teacher.
 Probable destination: University prof.

4-B

JOHN ANDERSON: "Louie the lip" wears Slobbovian hood boots. Plays Russian Roulette on the side, and has lost only three times. Few know it, but he's a roaming gambler. We know where the casino is, John!

ALEXIA BROWN:

In school she's quiet and works most of the day.
 During classes Alexia hasn't much to say.
 Her attitude towards work is always the same.
 Because success seems to be her aim.

ELAINE BULL:

This quiet lass came to us from Quill Lake.
 A wonderful nurse she'll eventually make.
 Laughing with Betty much of her time she spends;
 Elaine, although new, has made numerous friends.

PATRICIA CAMPBELL:

A nicer gal you could never meet;
 Pat's personality can't be beat.
 A "girl in white" she's bound to be,
 And grow to wise maturity.

4-B — Continued

TERRY CHAMBERLAIN: Terry is forced to move from seat to seat. He works for the government we understand . . . maybe an inspector in disguise. Once in a while he gets into a slugging duel with Roy.

GARRY COATES: Trigger's favorite pastime is answering the door, or getting ammunition from the office. Mr. V: Then you factor the quadratic root of the hypotenuse of X . . . Trigger: What the . . . ? "All right, you guys!" Always get poor Gerald B. into trouble.

ROY CRIPPEN: Crip drives a real nice sports car, the only one of its kind. He's just so enthusiastic about Chaucer and Hamlet. Has enough spares to get a part-time job. Roy wants a nice easy job, like working at Chalk River with NRX Reactor . . . as chief janitor.

SANDRA DASH: This pert young miss sports a diamond that flashes; Schoolwork and the fiancé are two great clashes. When asked her ambition, she says, "Wait and see" — But we know it's a housewife she'll eventually be.

BETTY DAVIES: Betty is always bright and cheery. Life for her is never dreary. To be a lab technician is her desire. No doubt she'll succeed and set the world afire.

REG DELONG: Drives a small "half-track," but wait, no . . . it's a car! "But sir, what happened to the X?" Will probably buy out the CPR. Reg curled and bowled as well as being the Boys' Sports Editor for the Outlook.

DON DUNCAN: Zeke . . . a stubble-jumper from Pasqua . . . "Hey, Hilt, can you help me with this problem?" Favorite pastime is eating lunch and doing homework. Don would like to be a mountie . . . "But oshifer, it's — hic! — only water."

JOHN ELSOM: "Well, we all know that Boharm has some of the better curlers, like me and . . ." John threw some pretty mean rocks this year. "Say, George, do you think it'll snow hard enough to block the roads during exams?"

ALLEN FARNEL: "Oh no! Scream! 1,400 copies of Experiment 36!! 930 of Exp. No. 37 . . . For Sale: original manuscript copies of Chemistry experiments 36-60 inclusive . . . Apply Allen Farnel, 4B. After 6 P.M., go to Chem. Lab. Now he's drawing plans for a paper factory."

DON GRAND: Our Tiny Tim . . . eats little people for breakfast. "Had any bomb threats in your lunch-box lately?" Friar Tuck has one of the best desks in the room. Silence, seclusion and solitude.

HILTON HACK: "Shortie of 4B" . . . Is the president of the Hit-and-Run Club. Hilt curled this year. Can often be seen putting snow down Bev's neck. Hilt would like to go to university after Grade 12, if his parole comes through.

FRED HEAL: Fritz believes in anti-co-operation during Lit and Comp periods. Fred can be detected by his . . . free? . . . style of writing. Hieroglyphics were never so bad! Fred played basketball for the Grads, as well as pool. (For the Grads?) "All those who wish to continue talking leave the room . . . Heal!"

ALLAN HESELTON: Can be identified by red hair, with a grin from head to head (surplus brain storage). Tolerates Fritz during Physics, when he plays Paul Revere. Taking advanced electro-hyperthermonucleonical engineering course by correspondence. "Now if I put this resistor here, sir, I . . ." Zap!

LORNE HUMPHREYS: Who needs Elvis, when he have Bump? Runs a stiff competition with coyotes . . . OOOOWWWW!! Lorne should have a twisted spine by now from turning around so often. "He shoots, he scores!! . . . wait a minute, there's been a mistake . . . They're carrying Humphreys off the ice."

4-B — Continued

KAY KELLY: Kelly's a girl who can't be beat. Her smiling eyes never show defeat. Saskatoon her home for the future shall be. And we wish her good luck in her R.N. degree.

LEONA LACELL: Although she only takes some of the subjects, she seems to get good marks. Always has her homework done. Can often be heard voicing her opinion from the back of the room during lit or social periods.

JOHN LAKE. Often called M. Lac by M. Robinson. "Could I please have MY French notes?" "Who stole my motorcycle?" Wyatt Earp, only 1.36 seconds on the draw . . . Bam! . . . Ouch! Darn, look at that average, only 99.99 per cent . . . Shall we grab him now, or wait till after exams?"

GARRY LEES: Loves fighting with Hilt. Good morning, Bev . . . Smash! Garry would like to join the RCMP . . . "So, anyway, this Hack comes charging at me . . . I grab his hand, see? . . . a little twist of the wrist, and there he goes, head first into the radiator. Was it three or four ribs, Hilt?"

STELLA LOKKEN: Here's to our Stella a classmate true, Who ne'er her duty fails to do. Life on the ranch is already beckoning; One of these days she'll be off, we're reckoning.

ELAINE LYMAN: Elaine from Mossbank came this year. A member of the Briar, brought many a cheer. A part-time job keeps this miss on the hop. The technology profession is her next stop.

DALE McCOMBS: Oh, Blooondie! Dale played for the Grads. "Hey, look at my average . . . I'm going to play basketball again!" Can usually be seen at Charlie's after four. Dale worked at Clarke's Men's Wear. "Sir, could I sell you this cellophane shirt . . . just wonderful for suntans, sir."

JOHN McINTYRE: Mac can be identified by his "Pogo-stick bounce." Plays drums at our dances and dribbles for the Grads. That brush-cut makes him look like a level-headed fellow.

HUGH McKENZIE: Happy Hubert carries his experiments around in a wagon. Hugh curled this year. Even laughs during Chem periods. He must have it real bad. Hugh has racked up a total of 25 points with his little car.

PETER McQUEEN: The "Atomic Brain" knows a little about everything. Noted for his technique (?) with the opposite sex. He constitutes the M of WAM Studios this year. Pete comes up with brilliant suggestions like water-burning spaceships and air-raid helmets for 4B.

DARLENE MANCHESTER: As convener of our dances, Darlene is on top. Nothing difficult can make her stop. In the Sprigs O' Heather, she takes the lead. No matter what she chooses, Darlene's bound to succeed.

ROBERT MITCHELL: Silence is golden, and so are his marks. Bob would like to be an ag rep. Meanwhile, back on the farm . . . Bob always has his homework done . . . most of the time, anyway.

NANCY NAKANO: Good things come in packages small. That's our Nancy—good friend to all. Her musical ability wins many awards. When on the piano she strikes those chords.

CAROL NANT: Astride her horse, Carol looks classy. Everyone agrees she's a talented lassie. Her ability in Algebra she has evidently shown. For a wardrobe of great selection this miss is known.

4-B — Concluded

ED NELSON: Believes in "Do-It-Yourself" math equations. Some guys have all the luck with math. Ed has a mean laugh and a keen set of blond hair.

SHERRILL THOMPSON: Often called "Duke." "Haven't you heard, Wednesday's my half holiday." Just loves getting a note for a note for a note about a late slip three weeks ago. Shall we work it into a G.P. series? "Madame Curie" loves popping test tubes.

GERRY OBERG: Enjoys Trigonometry all the way to insanity. Gerry really gets it rough sitting right in front of the desk. Gets caught every time . . . Crack . . . Oh, that ruler!

JEANNETTE TODERASH: Jeannette's talent never lets her fall. Her ability to sing rates high with all. She's another young miss with lots of ambition. Her future lies as a lab technician.

GARY PEEBLES: "No, sir. I didn't throw it either." We believe you, Gary. Whiiiiizz! Thud! Owww! "I cannot tell a lie, it was him." Can be identified by his curly hair, and his "Who, me?" smile.

ELLEN WALLACE: Ellen is our capable Vice of Hi-Y. As an ardent cheerleader she rates very high. She is a curler of renown in our winter clime. But as to her future—just give her time.

ROBERT RICHARDSON: Rich can be seen quietly provoking revolutions with Gary Peebles and Perry Wong. A middle-man during the Chalk Wars (1957-1958). Bob is caught somewhat in the female jungle about him. He's out in the hall before the bells have stopped ringing . . . are you sure those are "water" fountains?

DOREEN WARN: Inevitably wandering is Doreen each day. Where she's to go each period, she can rarely say. Although no definite thought to the future she's given. We know she'll go far with her ambition.

BEV ROBINSON: Bev is always so quiet and sweet. She has a "hello" whenever you meet. With her sparkling personality, she will succeed in whatever vocations she decides to lead.

GEORGE WILSON: Leave it to George. Break many windows, George? How you gonna keep 'em down on the farm, after they've seen 4B? "But sir, I saw a rainbow once when it wasn't raining."

MARILYN SMITH: There is 4B's industrious blond. Of track and field she is particularly fond. In the commercial field she wants to aim. We all know Marilyn will win her fame.

PERRY WONG: Our chief pigeon-catcher and missile launcher. Perry is something the Russians haven't got, our latest weapon? Likes the world series better than school. Throws oranges for 11c each; excels from lead shot to chalk.