

NOLA AYERS is noted for arguing with the teachers and riding her bicycle. Her most memorable incident was "testifying in court because of election right rowdiness". Next fall Nola plans to attend the University of Manitoba to go through for a physiotherapist for crippled children.

DOUG BESPALKO is content with his life up to this point. He prefers sports and driving to his other activities and enjoys floor hockey and volleyball the most. He liked Mr. Hanley because he was the only teacher they had who was smaller than he was.

VALERIE BILLS enjoys skiing and boys. Lunch hours are never dull for Valerie, especially those she had in 2D she says, but she must have problems (usually boys) for she often consults her own Ann Landers it seems. Her ambition is to be a commercial artist although it does not concern her as much as leaving Central forever.

ROXY BUCHANAN enjoys the lites, long weekends and the teacher's meetings at 3:20 P.M. Next Year she plans to go to the University of Saskatchewan.

HAROLD BULLIED likes meeting people and the fact that high school is one of the last steps on the path to freedom. His favorite subject has been Biology because he holds an interest in living things. He likes hunting, fishing, camping, baseball and basketball.

SHARRON CARTER enjoys painting, football games and listening to the radio. Sharron is good at sewing and gets good marks. Her ambition is to become a computer programmer and she plans on attending a computer programming course in Edmonton next year. She would like to leave her footprints on the hallowed halls of Central forever.

BILL CAVE is known for his L'il red Comet which oddly has needed a few minor repairs since he owned it. Bill, skip of the boys' brier team, enjoys all interhouse sports, and drinking 40 oz. bottles of milk with the boys. Bill plans to take Commerce at Saskatoon next year but will probably become permanent rink rat at the Country Club.

FLORENCE CHOW enjoys doing extracurricular activities during Biology and Chem labs. She likes interhouse sports, phys. ed. and math classes. Florence would like to be an English teacher in Hong Kong but will probably become cleaning woman for Mao. Next year she intends to enter teachers' college in Regina. She leaves her marks and hard work to Ann Chow.

MARGERY CRIMP is president of the SRC and did a good job this year by bringing many needed improvements to Central. She enjoys sports, singing with friends, camping and liking people for what they really are. She is one of the most active students in the school and plans to attend university to obtain a career.

SHARON DANIELS enjoyed meeting new people during high school, and is especially noted for her "French" boyfriend and his "hot" car. Her ambition is to join the Peace Corps overseas but will probably end up raising French hippies.

GORD FINDLAY enjoyed weekends with Shirley, stealing Dave's shoes, five minute breaks, and bugging Shelda. Gord's favorite teacher is Miss Heaps because she turns him on! In the future he hopes to join the R.C.M.P. but he will probably end up a pack boy in a local grocery store.

CHI FONG may be new to Canada but he gets along well especially in maths and sciences where he puts the rest of us down. Chi's immediate ambition is to pass lit. and comp. exams. He plans to take engineering at university next year.

This year NEIL GARDNER was Alpha House Leader and Business manager on the Outlook. Neil enjoyed interhouse sports, driving the "396", working on Charlie Brown, eating lunch with the girls, and weekends.

PETER GARRATT likes sports, various kinds of social functions and elections with the girls. He is one of the group in the hallway and enjoys five minute breaks. Next year he is going to Europe and then will probably end up a janitor for one of his brothers. He leaves the Garratt tradition to the teachers.

VERNON GORR Although Vern isn't a French scholar he does very well in sciences and maths. He intends to become a millionaire, as he always did like collecting money, especially coins. Vern leaves his Grade 12 labs to the highest bidder and passes on to further his education.

MARG HAGERTY enjoys a few interhouse sports and getting good marks. She'll never forget about her getting an award for her home-ec achievements. Marg wishes to become a teacher and will attend the U of S next year. However, her probable destination is teaching nursery rhymes to the little beasties of the forest.

SHELDA HAMILTON enjoys all interhouse sports as well as riding. Her favorite teacher is Mr. Wallace because, "He never laughs at any of my dumb questions." Also her most memorable person is Nola Ayer's half-brother. Shelda leaves her library book to the person who swiped it and plans to take nursing next year.

ROYAL HINTHNER must enjoy girlwatching for he prefers younger teachers, all female!! Also, his greatest enjoyment in high school is "listening to a good looking teacher like Miss Heaps." He also enjoyed poker in Mr. Penry's History periods. Royal hopes to attend university, definitely a French one for he is 4A's French scholar??

DONNA HUNTER was 4A's "red bomb." She was only here first semester during which she was quiet, so quiet in fact that Miss Heaps still doesn't realize she's gone and wonders who is away.

JIM JENNER enjoys weekends the most. In fact he starts early by often not coming Friday afternoon. He tells us his main activity is fixing his '56 Chev. but he is known for another pastime as well. Jim wants to further his education but isn't saying when, where, or what it will be.

LYNNE KNUTTILA does get terrific marks in all subjects but her favorite subject is Literature. Her ambition is undecided (Maybe a little guidance Counselling would help), but she will probably end up as a teacher. Lynne also leaves her labs to her sister, Sandi, in hope that she may learn from the mistakes of others which in her case are few. Lynne was the 1969 Valedictorian.

STEW MILLIGAN seems to have enjoyed school, especially detention with Mr. Robinson in Grade 9. Literature is his favorite subject as, "it was the most interesting, besides it was easy". Also he enjoyed playing who's who and what's what with Miss Scott. You'll probably see him any weekend night on Main St. Next year he intends to return and after that . . .

JACKIE MOFFAT, active in all sports, is best known as skip of Girls' Brier team and Kappa Girls' House Leader. Her most memorable incident was losing a contact (in her eye), during Provincial Curling Playdowns. Jackie enjoys everything from cutting up things to watching drags.

KATHY MOULDING enjoyed all sports especially skiing, swimming, and bicycle riding. Kathy is often the object of practical jokes like having her shoes stolen in biology and having lead weights put in her purse in physics. Next year she plans to take a secretarial course at S.T.I. so she can stay with Bob.

SUSAN NEIL has always been on all the escapades there were and enjoys hard time dances and participating in or watching all kinds of sports. She feels school spirit should be improved and finds some of the students here weird. She will probably go to university next year and leaves Mr. Nelson a tube of Ultra Brite to give his smile sex appeal.

MURRAY NELSON is noted for his good standings in the hall at noon and otherwise. He likes basketball, volleyball and interhouse sports. He really enjoyed those football games and being Delta House Leader. He wants to be an engineer but would probably make a good phys. ed. teacher and is leaving his basketball uniform to Rick Grafton.

Although KEITH PAYNE was only here first semester, he was not forgotten by some of the girls who sent letters to him and received letters from him. Next year he intends to go to university, but he will probably end up a breadman. He leaves his memories of Grad '68 to some other fool.

SANDY PRESLEY enjoyed going to football games and cheering for Central. She also enjoyed swimming, skating, dancing and sewing. She plans to work and take classes for nursing at the training school next year, then she will probably end up as a housewife.

DAVE RAILTON is well-known in 4A for his love of Miss Heaps. He has done or will do anything except his homework. His ambition is to become a geologist, but will probably get no further than a life guard at the Nat, where he can watch all the "tighties".

ELAINE ROGERS has enjoyed participating in school activities, only regretting she didn't participate in more. Elaine likes older boys with fast cars and has a habit of losing her purse in history periods. She would like to become a Lab. Technician and her probable destination is to become a "pither" of frogs for Mr. Hill.

OLIVER O'REILLY spent his years in high school obtaining his education and found his other interests outside the school. His enjoyment of school was only surpassed by his enjoyment of leaving.

JANICE SZUCH has enjoyed the different people she has met each year in the rooms she has been in. Languages are her favorite subject, dances and parties are her favorite activities. Next year Janice intends to attend university and become a teacher.

ROB TOMS blew a running shoe at 9 mph during the Centennial exercise program. His fascination for clocks is only surpassed by day-dreaming and watching traffic. He is for more student power and his only ambition is to be happy. This could mean staking claims in the Yukon.

BRENDA WUTKE enjoys inter-school activities. Cheerleading, Jim and the thought of a diamond in June. Brenda says she will always remember the "bugs" field trip and the smelly fish in grade 11. Her ambition is to take a business course at the STI but she will probably stay home with mommy and daddy.

4B

DONNA BERGLIND enjoyed boys, beautiful clothes, her father's car, and Mr. Currie during high school. She was vice-president of the SRC and had the black and blue bruises that went with it. Donna would like to leave the garbage in the physics lab to anyone stupid enough to move to station six. Her destiny is undecided.

GARY GREGG enjoys sports and Mr. Currie's Lit, and Comp. classes. If he graduates he'd like to obtain a career in banking; perhaps in the safe-cracking business. Before leaving Central, however, he plans to leave his anti-perspirant deodorant spray to the boys in 4B.

LINDA CZERNICK likes Mr. Wallace and Mr. Currie because they drilled their subjects into her. Her ambition is to travel but her probable destination is to travel around Moose Jaw. She thinks Central would be improved if more qualified teachers were hired. F.S. "I would just rather not go into that right now."

BOB CROSBIE enjoys sports, Mr. McIver and Garth Kelly. If he could re-do his high school years he would spend more time having fun during school hours. His ambition is to own a clothing store with himself as the clothes rack. Next year he is going to help the boys in Saskatoon have a year-long party. He's not telling what he leaves.

ALICE BUCKMASTER enjoyed grade 10, especially geography, in Eyebrow. She says if she could re-do her high school years she would have stayed in Eyebrow. (what have we done wrong???) Alice's ambition is to become a good wife and mother but will probably continue to find herself in the wrong place at the wrong time.

AUDREY FREIDIN has a very lively personality and was a great cheerleader. Her most memorable incident was discovering boys from Nutana undressing in the girls' locker room. Her ambition is to become a Commercial artist but will probably end up a barker in a carnival.

BEV GARDNER likes watching girls play interhouse sports. Girls is his favorite subject and he liked Mr. Clark because he taught everything but History. His ambition is to be an airforce pilot in Vietnam. He intends to do the same next year as he did this year, "nothing".

BART HOLLINGER enjoyed the holidays and being a play-boy. Next year Bart says he thinks he'll do his homework. Bart found biology interesting as he eventually wants to become a veterinarian, but will probably become a kennel boy.

BRIAN GUSA likes his chrome reverse rims as well as his car. He rarely comes to school so we guess he is practising for his summer holidays. He never says very much but great thoughts must occupy his mind.

LINDA LOUSTEL admires Mr. Currie's methods of teaching Lit. and Comp. classes and feels that more teachers should follow his lead. Next year she plans to further her studies or travel. She would like to be a writer but feels she will probably end up an old maid in the Poor House.

GREG MCCARTNEY is this year's Mr. Football. Noted for his unique laugh, Greg enjoys females, parties and football. The most outstanding person he met was "The Babe" because he could be told what to do and how to do it. Greg's ambition is to become a millionaire but his ultimate achievement will probably be a janitor in a bank.

LARRY MCGILL enjoyed being a freskie in grade 9 and watching our boys win the football championship three years ago. His ambition is hard to say but his probable destination will be a small job.

ALLAN MCLEOD is possibly the next Prime Minister of Canada after he makes his appearance in the political world. He was the best counsellor in his grade ten typing class and has a great talking voice. He claims he enjoys studying and homework, but has noted out of school activities.

JIM MORGAN He's narrow at the shoulders and broad at the hip. And everyone knows plastic boots don't slip. That's Jim. He'd like to leave if they'd let him, but University doors to his marks are shut. That's Jim.

The thing LARRY OCRANL enjoys most about High School is the togetherness of the class before nine o'clock. In the future, he hopes to take education in Edmonton and would like to become an even more permissive teacher than Mr. Wallace. He is also an avid bowler who plays most other inter-house sports.

BRIAN SCHOENROTH prefers imaginative and interesting approaches to teaching like the methods Mr. Wallace uses and the stories he heard in literature classes. He intends to go to university next year and later work in the sciences. He'll probably be a test tube cleaner for Dow Chemical.

RALPH PAYNE found getting into high school the only good thing about it. He spends most of his time driving around with the boys. The most memorable person he met is Russ Skingle because he's never met a giant before. Ralph's ambition is to be a pilot but will no doubt end up as a janitor for Air Canada.

GARNET PARKER dislikes excessive activity in anything but sports. He also says he tries to avoid ANY girls for ANY reasons (not really). Garnet's ambition is to make money, but next year he plans to go to the USA and "see what their universities are like."

BRAD PRATHER enjoyed watching the girls and interhouse sports. He also enjoyed algebra and curling on the boys' Brier team. Brad leaves his charm to anyone who hates girls and likes drinking. Brad's ambition is to become a "Rich" engineer but his probable destination is to become a lightbulb in Hollywood.

JERRY RHODE has a really great attendance record and even though he is rarely seen he is well liked and notably quiet during literature classes. Because of his neat size the Jolly Green Giant will probably hire him on as a green pea picker.

RUSS SKINGLE enjoyed football games, school dances and Debbie Kjeestrup (our Glasgow exchange student). He enjoys Chemistry but got it mixed up with physics while doing his writeup for the year book. He leaves his tall-up cereal to Dave Garner.

RICHARD SNELL is a history nut who would like to become a history professor. He enjoys badminton, soccer, floor hockey and finds the grade nines quite satisfactory. He will probably end up being an old fuddy-duddy digging up old bones. He leaves his eraser to the next person who gets his books.

MIL STEPHANSON enjoys his souped up car, the usual weekend bash, watching "a" girl, passing the odd physics exam and "Crisco". He feels that Central is the best school he spent some good years here. Although he would like to take computer accounting, with his mind he'll probably come into a mound of money.

RICHARD SWENSON enjoys History, his history teachers, girls and interhouse sports. The most memorable person Richard met was Mr. Robinson while he was standing out in the hall. His ambition is to become ruler of the world but he is more likely to become ruler of his own domain as a rich agricultural representative.

MARY WILKINSON Mary, Mary, was a "loser". The time came when Dave did choose her. Algebra, geometry, what a ball. But did she like Central? Not at all! Physiotherapy? Massage? Hubby? "Some kids at Central are very snubby."

4C

TOM YUEN, enjoyed the possibility of participation in sports. He likes going to games and watching hockey. Also, he prefers jokes and story telling to work, but may succeed as a chartered accountant. French seemed to confuse him so he left his French marks behind.

REG BACIU is noted for his love of literature and his rendezvous in the main hall before nine, at breaks, and at noon. He hopes to attend university in Saskatoon, but will be able to go alone?

GARRY BARBER is a Central Cyclone and will never forget the year they won the provincial title. He enjoyed the carefree life of the students and will never forget Mr. Currie for taking the boredom out of Lit. classes. Garry leaves his physics and dancing knowledge to Colleen Probert.

CHERYL BASTEDO enjoys working at the Dog'n Suds and going to Regina. Her most memorable incident was starting and finishing high school. She intends to go to the U of S next year. She thinks Central would be improved by the removal of the cliques.

BEV LOHSE enjoys five minute breaks the most and she thinks all her teachers are good eggs. Her favourite activities are driving around and sewing. Her ambition is to get her B.C.D. but she thinks she will end up being a nursery-school teacher in Calgary. She intends to enter university next year.

BOB MACDONALD doesn't like some of Central's teachers and so would replace most of them if given the chance. He enjoyed Biology because he got to play with lizards. He refers to the Grade 9's as a bunch of sheep.

TED MAH is noted for his sense of humor and his life of dancing. Ted hopes to take engineering at university next year. We hear he is Central's answer to Hugh Hephner.

KEN MARKEWICH is one of the more faithful students as he has had many long years of service. He likes animals and things in biology but prefers girls and cars. His sad experience in high school was when he got detention on his birthday.

DONNA MITCHELMORE is noted for her lively personality and a great sense of humour. Coming to Central from Saskatoon in grade 11, she has many interests there and will return to take a dental assistant course. A good student excelling in athletics Donna is sure to be successful.

BETH DAVIDSON loves spares, four o'clock and holidays. Going out to get her car when she walked to school was her most memorable incident. She likes Home-Ec. because of the food. Her ambition is to complete grade 12 this year, but she thinks it will also take night school to do it.

DON DICKINSON is noted for his hair and his humour. His frequent trips to Regina make for interesting Monday morning gossip. Don really came alive for Hair during elections. As a connoisseur of the good life, we wish him every success.

RANDY DRAKE says his most memorable incident was the time Mr. Watson said "Right!" two hundred times during a double-period. He enjoys driving up and down Main and messing around with cars. His favourite teacher is Mr. Hanley — because he drives a G.T.O.

RON DYOK is and was rarely seen around the school, but could generally be found around action elsewhere. He changes classes so often we lose track of him. What he will be is unknown, but not unpredictable.

LUCILLE ELLIS is Alpha's house leader and president of the Intramural Council. 'Lucy's' memorable experience was spending her Christmas in Halifax. Talented in sewing and in art, she would like to pursue in a career in the art field. Pretty and popular, Lucille will excel.

MELODY MacNEVIN is a friend of all the world and is noted for her optimism. Melody wishes to become a nurse and will begin a two-year training program next year in Saskatoon but her probable destination is to play hospital with her baby brother.

RUSS McCORD is very friendly and never gets really angry. He enjoyed ALL his years at Central. Next year Russ plans to check out the action in California but his ambition is to be on the Barrett Underwater Demolition Team for the US marines.

STEWART McCREARY enjoyed meeting people in Central. He enjoys interhouse floor hockey and volleyball. Next year Stewart will return to Central once more. He wants to become an electrician but will probably end up getting a shock.

DANNY MCGUIRE kept himself going all these years with the thought that someday he would be finished with high school. His favourite activities are watching girls and dragging. Danny's main ambition is to become the fuss (or maybe he means "fuzz").

BARRY McLAFFERTY (Smeesh) is noted for leading a lively life and since he finished after the first semester it is probably even livelier. He gets along well with the girls as well as the local establishment.

JUDY EWART, Clarion Editor, believes in the beautiful things and appreciates music, films and books. She is noted for seeing San Francisco live and likes French as she feels it is important for Canadians to be bilingual. Someday she will see Paris in the spring and plans to attend Queen's University next year.

MARIE FENWICK is noted for a certain "hot" Javelin which she drives around town. In time, she plans to become a Lab technician, but now she just enjoys her many spares. Marie feels a cafeteria and smoking lounge would improve Central.

DAVE GARNER enjoyed football games, noon hours, dances, running for Mr. Freshie in grade 9, and the drink machines which were installed this year. His ambition is to be a lawyer but he'll likely become a university dropout. Dave is very friendly — to all the girls. His favorite pastimes are skiing, being a playboy and playing in a band.

DARYL HERCHUK returned to Central to complete his education. And although we don't see him too often, he's noted for his friendliness. Daryl excels as a wrestler and should be congratulated for his excellent coaching of the wrestling team this year.

MICHAEL KRAUSS is an unreal philosopher who enjoys laughing and tying the laces on his cowboy boots. He enjoyed Latin because it added to his store of totally useless information which also includes an inexhaustible supply of "Confucius say" maxims. Next year Michael intends to "leave the ivy-covered halls of higher learning (colloquially known as Central)" and become a famous writer.

CHRIS NEVILLE is Central's answer to a hippy, and he says the one thing he enjoyed most about high school was the thought that one day he'd be finished. His favourite subject is History and he plans to be a History teacher later on. His only complaint was that not enough boys had long hair and not enough girls were blonde.

SUSAN NUTALL enjoys interhouse sports, elections, literature, Mr. Currie and Jon Tulloch. Susan's ambition is to become a nurse but, alas, next year she must return to finish her Grade Twelve. Susan's ambition is to become the first perennial scholar of Central.

ELMER PETERS most memorable incident of his years at Central was the hours he spent in detention. He likes sports very much. Elmer plans to become an electronics engineer but will probably end up as a gas jockey.

DAVE PIERCE enjoys golfing and playing pool. Although he says he thinks four o'clock is the best time of day, Dave says he'll be back for another year. Dave would like to become an accountant.

BOB ROWE is easy to recognize because he's the one with the new '69 car. Beside cars, Bob likes sports and girls. He would like to revise our whole school system, with four-day weeks, longer breaks, and no detention. Bob plans to be back next fall, but in the future would like to become a computer programmer.

CATHY RUDD is Delta's house leader for 1969. She was a cheerleader for two years and is active in school affairs. Noted for her year-round tan, lovely clothes and pleasant personality. Cathy will undoubtedly be as popular at university in Saskatoon as she is at Central.

LANA SEAL started her high school life by walking into an unoccupied boys' washroom. She enjoys interhouse sports and driving around with her friends. She hopes to complete her grade 12 by 1969 but her probable destination is completing grade 12 by 1970.

MORLEY STALL is one of the better students who found learning was the most enjoyable part of high school. Morley enjoys literature, judo and volleyball. He has many ideas how he could better Central. Morley's ambition is to make a good life for himself and he hopes to make Tokyo someday.

JIM STEELE is an easy-going fellow who enjoys looking at all the lovely girls that frequent the halls of learning. His favorite activities include skiing, talking, and driving around. If he could re-do his years at Central he would change his jeans.

4D

BRENDA BAKER is this year's Outlook Editor and she enjoys playing games with Mr. McIver. Brenda's ambition is to live a free and beautiful life but she will probably end up lost in a forever trip. Brenda likes fencing, music, books, and most of all being with her beautiful friend. She leaves to experience the meaningful life so as not to be bound upon the Way.

GAIL BOUTHMAN says she will never forget the second day she was at Central when she fell "up" the stairs. The only people Gail says will remain memorable to her are those she knew only through notes on the desks she sat in. Gail's ambition is to join the Canadian Airlines, but will probably end up writing poems for Miss Heaps.

LOUIS BRODA came to Central at the beginning of the second semester and is the only person who finds education a necessity. Louis has a real "gas" beating Mr. Wallace from green lights. His ambition is to study electronics at the STI and his probable destination is to be a secret agent man for D.O.T.

JEAN BUSH enjoys interesting relationships with handsome male Israelis and Frenchmen. You can often see Jean plodding down Chemistry lane with Mr. Wallace. She enjoys meeting old friends and making new ones.

PAT CHAMBERLAIN enjoyed the football games best of anything in high school. Her favourite subject was French and she would like to travel to France someday. Pat's favourite activities include playing records and badminton.

BRENDA CLARK is a fencing fanatic, who gets around on those tournament trips. She is an individual who appreciates books, records and creative drama. She likes languages and learns Greek on the side. She is one of the few who have a purpose in picking bones out of fish and chips; practise for anthropology.

LILLIAN COZAC is well-liked by everyone and can usually find something to laugh over. Lillian played all interhouse sports, and enjoyed badminton and bowling. Her ambition is to be an airline stewardess but next fall plans to attend the U of S, to study French. "Bonne chance!", Lil.

CHERYLE DONALDSON thinks all of our teachers are cool. She would like to be an airline stewardess but will probably join the historical society, as a bird watcher. She is noted for the tension she has on her curls and her unique laugh. She leaves her memories to anyone or is it anyone?

HEATHER DONISON is climbing up the ladder of success. During high school she enjoyed extra-curricular activities and wishes to become a teacher. In the future we see Heather as a wife on the farm raising a little "Hoggs". She would like to go to university in Regina because that's where the little green bugs puddle jump best.

JANICE DUFF is a member of the Sask. Youth Theatre and is a believer in mysticism. She likes fencing, learning Greek, drama workshops, reading music appreciation, and has notable penpals. She would like to work for the Canadian External Affairs Division with the Canadian Embassy in Greece but may end up as their private pencil sharpener.

JOANNE FJETLAND was Sigma girls Lit. director. She enjoys long weekends, skiing, literature and interhouse sports. Joanne wants to hitchhike through Europe but she is more likely to become a professional agitator. She leaves Central in search of a good life.

DIANNE FRANKHAM Di-Anne Landers always there. When someone has advice to share. Cages and Buggys on her mind. Psychology, reverse psychology, the usual grind. F.S. — "Farm living is the life for me, But make sure I have Doug for company."

ARDEN FUHRMANN (Flash) will never forget the time he got his shirt caught in the lathe in the workshop. It really broke him up. Arden enjoys basketball, hockey games, billiards and "the odd cinema". The only outstanding people Arden met in Central were the ones out standing in the hall.

GLENNYS HANNAH found interhouse sports to be one of the more enjoyable things about high school. Her favourite activities include dancing, sewing, swimming and skating. Glennys would have liked to have had the semester system right from Grade 9.

JOANNE HATLEY enjoyed football games and the cokes at the "A" most about her high school. Her main ambition is to get married and have a lot of money, but her probable destination is to be a spinster money counter at the Royal Bank. She leaves her bad memories behind and takes the good ones with her.

BRUCE HENDERSON likes sports, road trips, his girlfriend, and Lorne Richardson. Bruce plans to go to the U of S next year. His ambition is to become a phys. ed. teacher but his probable destination is Lorne Richardson's personal water boy. He didn't leave anything because he took everything with him.

BARBIE LEASK here and there. Meets new people everywhere. Always smiling it nice to see. She's a Jobie as all can see. Mr. McIver, he's her pet. Will she take French next year. I wouldn't bet. That's the story of her high school life. We'll see her again, a happy housewife.

LYNN LEWIS is noted for her liking of farm stories and her sports ability. She'll always remember the three provincial basketball and volleyball games that were never quite won. She may make it to university but for how long is questionable. She leaves her Babes uniform No. 42 to anyone who has the money to dryclean it or the courage to wear it as it is.

DOUG MCKINNON (Whipper, Kappa's house leader enjoys sports and his roommate's messages from Joanne F. in biology labs. He likes French because he is one of the few people who understand Mr. McIver's jokes. Doug leaves his double bar off his football helmet to the next corner linebacker who wants a broken nose. Ambition — financial tie-coon (a coon who sells ties).

LURIE MANG (Munga) enjoys doing new things and correcting Mr. McIver with his excellent French ability. Next year Laurie plans to grow older than he is this year. Laurie left at Christmas time to become a millionaire refusing the many scholarships offered to him. Who was that driving a Peerless Cleaner's van?

ALLAN MOORE is well-known for his dark green half-ton. Active in Demoly he is also a French scholar? for he leaves his fluent French to any other bilingual person. He plans to be a dentist or an architect but he'll probably still drive his old green truck because it's cheaper to fix if you are accident prone like Allan.

SHIRLEY MOORE enjoyed meeting all the new kids and her friend's blue car. Her ambition is an airline stewardess but she'll probably end up a model airplane gluer. She likes to dance and to participate in sports. She leaves her chemistry ability to her "star boarder" because she needs it.

SUSAN MURPHY, during her four years at Central, enjoyed congratulating the Cyclones after the football games and the discussions during typing in Grade 10. One of her favorite activities was writing "deep" poems during Chem study classes. As her last will, Susan would "leave the school doors open for all the little kittens and dogs in the winter".

JANET PAYNE attended Central for four years and says, "I wouldn't change on bit!" Janet is an active member of the Spriggs O'Heather Band. She wishes to become a veterinarian but will probably end up the medical advisor to Gentle Ben. She leaves her sympathy with those who aren't leaving.

SHIRLEY PYLE plans to attend U of S next year but later on will travel to Europe and marry a millionaire. She enjoys sports, 5 minute breaks, weekends and teacher's conventions. In other words she enjoys "being active". Shirley leaves her worn out trapping license that her sister left to her because she really doesn't need it any more.

ROZ THOMPSON is one of Central's top athletes. Roz enjoys sports, lits, breaks, 4:00, teacher's conventions, etc. (all the educational parts of school). She wants to be a model but will probably end up as Twiggy's chambermaid. At Christmas time Roz got burnt — in Hawaii.

GLENDIA WEINBENDER is 4D's Mozart and likes music of any kind and sleeping. She will always remember George and jaritor and Mr. McIver for his pantomimes. Glenda's ambition is to do anything music-y but will probably end up the Star on the Harlem Clowns. She leaves her chem.

RON WINN says that he will never forget the time he passed a French exam. His favorite subject and teacher are French and Mr. McIver because they are both so EASY? to understand. He would like to become a professional horse trainer after he attends university but will probably end up living with his horses in the barn.

KALVIN WILSON comes from Quebec and finds Central too far "gone" to do anything with. In his opinion the skirts aren't short enough and jeans are worn too often — Calvin wishes to attend Simon Fraser or Sir George Williams and eventually graduate.

ELAINE EDDIE (Blimey) entered the hearts of many in her short term at Central. She likes to ski and manages to spend time at other sports?? Her laughter was heard in the halls each and every noon hour. Now she leaves for Banff and takes all she brought — and more.

CONNIE GEMMELL came to us from Peacock and says she enjoys meeting new people, going to dances, and attending football games. Her main ambition is to graduate. Next year she plans to work for her father and she'll probably be a lovely little housewife in future years.

JERRY GRIFFITH spends many solitary hours saying little, doing little and one day soon we expect a great change in Jerry as he is almost at the end of his line. June exams will make or break him. Jerry is interested in fish and is now breeding them — kinda got fished into it!

CEC HOBDAY, 4E's fair-haired Historian, met Mr. Nelson each day with a smile and an empty book. Cec leaves with the hope that his picture will dack the halls of Central and carry on the Hobday tradition.

LYNN JOHNSTON likes attending "Young People's" on Friday evening. She feels that all the teachers at Central are good and next fall Lynn plans on taking a secretarial course at the STI. She might be a secretary and she might not be a secretary.

4E

UEL ANDERSON added excitement to our room this year until he went elsewhere for a girlfriend! His quiet smile, quick eye and study manner got him many hours of extra work. As for his books, they were so neat the pages were perfectly clean.

SHIRLEY ARMSTRONG enjoys dancing, driving in a hot rod and football games. She well remembers her extra hours spent in 4E for skipping. Ambition: nurse, but will probably end up an honorary dish-washer at the S.T.S. We all wish Shirley "good luck" in her future endeavors.

GREG BATHGATE says if he could re-do his high school years he would change his marks. The only subject Greg doesn't find boring is Phys. Ed. Although he plans to attend Veterinarian College next year he will probably end up being a dog kennel cleaner.

GLENDIA BELSCHER enjoyed the boys at Central better than anything else. By coming to CCI she took advantage of the semester system and tried to complete her grade 12. Next year she plans to go to Edmonton to take a key punch course.

BOB KITTS is noted for his sideburns and his great sense of humor. He would like to be a millionaire but feels he will probably become a farmer. To improve the school he would have Kappa win all the sports every year. To improve school Bob thinks the hours should be from 10-11. Also there should be more breaks because "that could be an awful long hour".

KEN KOEHLER enjoys reading, music, singing, writing, poetry, and Mr. Currie's Lit. class. Busy guy! But there is one thing he doesn't like and that is Central's leaky roof. Ken wishes to travel and his one real regret was failing Grade Eleven.

VALERIE LIGHTLE enjoys watching football games and thinking of insults to sling back at Bob Kitts. Her most memorable incident was finding out it is wrong to smile in school. Next year she plans to take a computer key-punch course in Edmonton, but her main ambition is to marry a millionaire. To improve Central, Valerie would "lower those 'S!?'* pencil sharpeners."

MAUREEN MCCURDY likes swimming, dancing, and buying clothes. She feels Central would be improved if the detention room was burned down. Maureen's ambition is to be able to fly to Waterloo everyday but thinks she'll end up hitchhiking.

JIM MCINTYRE said if he could re-do his high school years, "Next time I'd like to make it in four." His most memorable incident was Freshie Day when he was in grade 9 because it was "the last of the good ones". Jim's ambition is to get a degree at U of S.

GARRY BIRKETT enjoyed the old freshie days and those long waited for five minute smoke breaks. His favorite pastime is goofing around with the boys. He has no ambition as yet but will probably end up a teacher at Central. Last Will — I, Garry Birkett, leave this school to my little brother with hopes he will make better use of it.

TOM CHAMPION enjoys noon hours and five minute breaks. His favorite activity is doing yesterday's homework today. His ambition is to be a chef but he will probably end up shelling peanuts for Kraft Peanut Butter. Tom leaves his sense of humor to Mr. Reesor.

ARLENE BRANDER enjoys the elections and likes math and biology. She'll never forget the time she broke her nose when she was playing basketball. She is interested in sports and her ambition is to become a teacher of the deaf, but will probably end up being a plain, old teacher.

JAY CLEMENT says his favourite teacher was Mr. Thiessen because he saw so much of him. His outside interests lay in cars, long weekends, and one particular girl. Next year he wants to attend the S.T.I. Jay plans on becoming a Structural Engineer with the idea in mind of making the curves look a bit better.

If MILLIE CROSS could re-do her school years she would "be more inclined to keep my nose to the grindstone". Her favourite activities included attending football games and participating in wild floor hockey matches. Next year Millie will go to university to get her teacher's degree. Her probable destination is principal of C.C.I.

MAURICE MEIER (Moe) spent only a few days of each month with us and we didn't get a chance to know him. During football games it was always nice to skip over to Moe's for refreshments and warm ups. On exam day Moe was to appear to "check things out" but failed.

DALE MEYER is a faithful student who sometimes wishes he'd gone to Peacock but then has his eyes on someone at Vanier. He likes cars, sports, dances and militia camp. He would like to join the armed forces if he still has his arms by then and leaves his smile to another "smiley".

CAROLE PAYSON enjoys the semester system and wishes she had had it in previous grades. Her favourite subject is History and she leaves her battered up History text to a student who isn't as enthusiastic. Carole's ambition is to see the world and her probable destination is a travelling saleslady.

MAVIS SCHAITEL enjoys sewing, talking, skating, talking . . . To improve Central Mavis thinks a coke machine that gives correct change would be desirable. Next fall she will enter nurse's training at the STS in preparation to be a psychiatric nurse. Her probable destination is taking over Mr. Knutilla's job.

HENRY SCHULTZ, our black-haired charmer, is sweet and shy. Roomer has it that he is different at a party — Grad! But with few words and deeds he accomplishes more work than many of us hope to. With Henry goes the secrets of Central and he leaves each to his own.

JESSIE STRONACH'S most memorable incident took place when she found her dad's graduating picture (Class of '41) on the second floor. Jessie enjoyed the semester system and wishes they had it in previous years. Jessie's ambition is to be an airline stewardess and marriage.

LINDA TAYLOR enjoyed the dances, the lits, and the "great kids" of C.C.I. One of her favourite activities was going to the football games. Linda feels that more lits and dances would "help make the year go faster". Next fall Linda intends to go to university to go through as a teacher.

RICK TAYLOR finds five-minute breaks and biology periods the most enjoyable. He doesn't have many complaints about C.C.I. but says Grade 9 boys are lacking in school spirit. Rick plans to work after high school to make enough money to go to university, although he says his probable destination is night school.

TOM URTON enjoys weekends and summer holidays. Tom's favorite activities are Canuck hockey games, skating and hunting. Tom's main ambition is to have a main ambition, and he says his probable destination is probably his destination. Next year he plans to head for the hills to work and play.

BONNIE WILLIAMS enjoyed all those trips away from home for volleyball and basketball . . . ! Her favorite teacher is every girl's favorite, Mr. Wallace. She likes sports of all kinds. Bonnie's ambition is to be a Phys. Ed. teacher but will probably end up as whistle carrier for Mr. Thiessen.

DOROTHY WOOD enjoyed all her high school years because she felt she was treated like an adult. Her favourite subject has been French, as she liked the challenge of learning another language. Her hobby is collecting Indian relics.

BILL WRIGHT enjoys swimming, hunting and skating. Retaking 4 grade 12 subjects in the first semester is the most memorable incident that happened to him at Central. Next year he plans to attend university and get a degree in Education.
