

4A

Greig Aitken enjoys sleeping, day-dreaming and girl watching. Greig would like to become an aeronautical engineer. If he could relive his high school years he would not go to school at all. His favourite teacher was Mr. Currie because he made English come alive.

Warren Baker, Sigma's House-leader, enjoys girlwatching and hunting. He's one of Central's star basketball players. Warren advises the undergrads not to take an 8 o'clock class. His future ambition is to become rich and live an easy life. His favourite teacher was Mrs. Waldo.

Cyndy Moore will always remember those 8 o'clock Comp. classes. Cyndy enjoys bus trips to the football final, football and basketball games and skidooning. Her favourite teacher was Mr. Currie because he's neat. She plans to attend U. of S. next year and take dentistry. Lots of luck — you'll need it.

Russ Nelson's advice to the undergrads is not to take 8 o'clock classes. If he could relive his high school he would not take an 8 o'clock class. During his spare time and school hours he enjoys sleeping and girl watching. Russ plans to attend the U. of S. next year and take engineering.

Robert O'Crane enjoys bowling, golfing and his spares. He'll always remember the time his class got kicked out of drama by Mrs. Lawrence. Whooper is going to take dentistry at U. of S. next year and hopes to have Cyndy as his assistant when he graduates.

Corey Olynik remembers the day Mr. Kindopp broke down and started to cry in front of the class. Corey liked Mr. Woolf 'because he was so understanding'. He enjoys being lit director, playing chess and the piano.

Allan Collins enjoys listening to Jim's ski-dooing stories. His most memorable experience in all his years at Central was sitting next to Dale in Geo-Trig and cutting up her ideals. Al plans to go to Australia next year and join the Aborigines.

Sharon Cook likes meeting new people (males), going out and having a good time. Her advice to the undergrads is "make grade 12 the first time and don't come back after you leave". She plans to take Secretarial Science at S.T.I.

Derek Franks likes to bomb around in the car, go to one or two parties a weekend, play pool and drink (milk, of course). He wants to be an airline pilot and fly all over the world — all over Moose Jaw?

Lois Greenlay's favourite pastime is stalling her car in the crescent. She enjoys doing things she is not supposed to do, and liked Mr. Parker because he gave her a female guinea pig. Lois plans to take a course in Biological Technology.

Finola O'Reilly says she does nothing but school work. But now the truth will be told. She is really an anti-establishment radical. While not planting bombs, Finola enjoys reading, sewing, and playing cards. Her ambition is to become Dr. O'Reilly.

Doug Parson will always remember being asked to play football for the U. of S. Huskies. Doug's favourite teacher was Mr. Nelson because he wanted to take lessons on Doug's walk. He plans to make lots of money and go to Australia.

Randy Passmore left school after suffering leg injuries which he received from being tackled once too many in a Cyclones football game. CCI has lost a good student and star athlete.

Donna Pegg enjoys watching grade 8 thrillers on television. She advises the undergrads to keep to the right when going up and down the stairs. Donna plans to take public administration at Carleton University in Ottawa. She would like to be the first female Governor-General.

Shelley MacCuish's main hangup was her blue gymsuit. She was green with envy over the red suits of the Central girls. She'd like to change her first name so Mr. McIver could remember it. Her plans for the future are to attend U. of S. and become a Lab Technologist.

Sandy (Buzz) McFadden's most memorable experience was being engaged twice to Lois Greenlay. He enjoys sleeping, eating and talking in class and going to YATS in his spare time. Buzz's favourite teacher was Mrs. Searcy because she's a good dancer.

Jim Maynard is 4A's ski-doo expert. Ask him anything about ski-dooing and he has a thrilling story to tell. Jim enjoys skidooning, hunting, curling and girls. Moose liked Mr. Parker because in his class he learned a lot about the reasons for the high birth rate in Thompson, Man.

Bob Morrison is 4A's nice guy. He plans on settling down with a wife and having two boys and a girl. His spare time activities include bicycling out to Buffalo Pound, skiing, looking out the window and eating milk and cookies. His advice to the undergrads is 'don't follow in my footsteps'.

Debbie Phillips enjoys skiing, cheer-leading and bumming dimes to buy chocolate bars at five-minute breaks. Her plans are to travel, but her future ambition is to get married and raise little cheerleaders.

Laurie Purdy enjoys swimming and reading in her spare time. She liked Mr. Wallace because he didn't have any bad habits that distracted from his teaching. Laurie would like to travel and think about what she can do for the rest of her life.

Jim Reggin enjoys playing Ping-Pong, skiing and listening to records. His favourite teacher was Mr. Wallace because he lets his class do what they want. Jim's advice to the undergrads is to speak your mind and don't be afraid. He plans to get his doctorate at the U. of S., Saskatoon.

Dale Rudd enjoys reading, swimming, and watching television. If Dale could relive her high school years she would have curled in all her grades instead of just grade nine. Dale plans to hitchhike around the world and then become a marine biologist.

Debbie Shaw would like to have singing in French every day and less pipetting in Chemistry (Hydrochloric acid is hard on the mouth). Her memorable experience was a puppet show in grade nine with Miss Heaps. She plans to go to University and teach puppeteering.

Dorothy Smith enjoys "doing what-ever turns her on at the time". She likes to listen to 4A's idle chatter — Lois G. She plans to attend U of S and take physio-therapy.

Charlene Stirton's most memorable experience was being Miss Freshie. In her spare time she enjoys skiing. Her favourite teacher was Mr. Wingert 'cause he's such a sweet little guy'. Her plans for the future are to work and sometime, hopefully get married.

Marjory Thomson was Central's president of the S.R.C. and did a fine job this year. She enjoys falling off stools and down stairs into Mr. Thiessen — "he's so understanding". She plans to go to U. of S. in Saskatoon.

Sandy Adelman enjoys reading, parties, dances and driving around. Mr. Wallace was her favourite teacher because he made Chemistry so EASY???. She plans to go to the U. of Alta. and take Dental Hygiene.

Emily Adrian enjoyed working in the library at noon and being with the girls at the breaks. She tries to look busy but is usually up to something with Francine. She hopes to go to university.

Eunice Bassendowski who is noted for cracking her chewing gum while we are all writing exams, says her most momentous experience in all her years at CCI, was shining up the trophies in the gym hall.

Shelly Bassendowski enjoys watching teachers "teach", eating in school, football games and television. Her jogging efforts might help her get into the U. of S. next year? Her marks will get her there anyway.

Myrna Voisey likes bipping around in her father's car. Myrna liked Mr. Parker because he was fun. She enjoys doing anything but school-work and her advice to undergrads is stay away from the teachers. Myrna's future is undecided.

Nicolette Watermanuk enjoyed Mr. Currie's Lit. classes because he made "Hamlet" interesting with his mini-dramas. She likes to read and work in the YATS and bowl. She enjoyed some interhouse activities and leaves the following advice to the undergrads: "be nice to our cat because he is Mr. Reesor's 'pet'."

Louise White's most memorable experience was getting 111% in Physics (computer's pet?). During school hours she talks, eats, sleeps and dreams. Her advice to undergrads is to remember how to take an antilog in Geo-Trig.

Rich Wicken's favourite pastimes include sailing and skiing. During school hours he enjoys making small talk with Miss Heaps. His favourite teacher was Mr. Sudom because he was a man of Rich's own heart — lazy. His plans are to become a nature lover and go to Australia.

Nancy Bateson is often seen at early morning lit meetings, which she enjoys because of the hours. Her spare time activities include working at Safeway, curling, hockey games and sewing. Nancy will be going to university next year.

Pam Bjornson loves chemistry classes for the view. Her advice for the undergrads is to participate in everything, to get the most out of your high school years. Next year she will work or go to U. of S. in Saskatoon. Her pleasant personality will take her a long way.

Rob Burns keeps our class entertained by explaining jokes and profound sayings to Holly. His favourite teacher was Mr. Parker, because he was a neat guy. Rob spends his time doing as little as possible and he plans to retire in the future.

Cathy Cavanagh's favourite teacher was Mr. Thiessen because he didn't laugh at her questions. Next year, she plans to take nursing, but she'll likely end up running an orphanage in Austria. Cathy enjoys school hockey games and driving her car.

Fred Wigmore's high school achievement was getting a touchdown after playing football for three years. Fred kept 4A awake during Physics with his jokes, which he undoubtedly learned while on a hockey expedition. Fred will likely end up a stick boy for Pee Wee Hockey.

Cheryl York advises everyone to avoid people like Fred A. and Ross H. unless they can take a lot of embarrassment. She spends her time looking for a good time, and thinks Mr. H. Kerr is such a "cute, chubby man".

4B

Ester Clothier enjoys waiting for the 11:45 bell to ring. She liked Mrs. Stewart's math classes. Ester would like to become a veterinarian assistant, but would likely just milk cows next year.

Valerie Craven's most unforgettable experience was singing French songs, accompanied by Mrs. Heslton on the accordion, outside in front of the school. She tries to have some fun in between all our homework assignments.

Francine Dyck enjoyed working in the library and jogging around CCI. She plans to become a librarian. We're sure her overwhelming enthusiasm will make her a success.

Lesley Freeman's favorite teacher was Mr. Thiessen because he likes kids. Lesley plans on getting a higher education, a job and a husband. Good luck!

Joanne Henry enjoyed inter-house sports while at Central. Her advice to undergrads is to keep your sense of humour and don't give up when things get tough. She will attend U of S, Regina campus next fall.

Vicki Jensen remembers the "field trips" in Mr. Hill's classes in gr. 11. She likes dances, parties and watching people work on their cars. Next fall, she will take either a course in data processing or accounting.

Lynn Johnson, "Spinny Lynny" likes being everywhere all the time. She played all sports and is Alpha's houseleader. She spends her school time making impressions. She hopes to go to university next year. Good Luck, Lynn.

Barb Kane's unforgettable experiences were being vice-president on the SRC and being MC in the lit this year, as well as receiving an unsigned love letter. She will be taking a nursing course in Regina next year.

Debbie Ross manages to always have a good time in school. She is always seen and heard near the vicinity of 4A, beside a certain J.C. She and everyone else in 4A just love to listen to Lois G. Debbie will be taking nursing in Calgary this fall.

Holly Ross likes sewing, reading, water skiing and being bothered by Robbie. Her favourite teacher was Mr. Wallace because he always gave her such "high" marks. Holly would like to take nursing in Calgary.

Pat Simle's most memorable experience at CCI, was winning the cheerleading competition two years in a row. She likes being everywhere all the time, too. Next year, Pat will keep busy going to university.

Wendy Starrak enjoys riding and swimming in her spare time. She would like to increase her riding ability and later, train show horses. We are sure Wendy will succeed as she is very competent in riding, and caring for horses.

Gary Kerr has left Central after a long stay in these halls of learning.

Dennis Link has left Central and schoolwork for more interesting things in the outside world.

Norma Major participated in many interhouse sports. She likes curling, skating, bowling, drawing and writing backwards in school. Norma's plans for the future are undecided.

Debbie Nutzhorn spends her time watching television and reading but has always gotten good marks in school. Debbie would like to attend STI and take data processing, but would rather just get rich.

Diana Stephenson's most memorable experience occurred when Laurie Pearson casually pulled her stool from under her as she sat down. Diana ended up on the floor, in a dress. Her favourite teacher was Mr. Hill. Her ambition is to marry into MONEY.

Loverna Tanner's favourite teacher was Mrs. McIvor because she kept her cool when Loverna often slept during class. She enjoys sleeping, reading, fooling around and looking into mirrors. She will be back at CCI next year.

Margo Tuplin admires all teachers because teaching is one vocation she would never ever choose. Margo enjoyed the lits, inter-house sports and choir. Her plans for next year are undecided.

Judi Wilson loved the football games, especially when Central won. She spends her time enjoying herself in and out of school. She would like to get a job with an airline and see the world.

Vic Palanyk likes curling and Phys. Ed. classes at Central. Mr. Woof was Vic's favourite teacher because he passed French just knowing "oui" and "non". Vic will be working next year, but he would like to join the Department of Natural Resources.

Colleen Probert enjoyed cheerleading, the lits, interhouse sports and being Sigma's houseleader. She hopes to go to university next year, but would like to travel first. She thinks more teachers should join in student activities.

Jane Quan enjoyed working on the yearbook staff for three years. Her interests are creating in all art forms, music and flying. Jane will attend the Alberta College of Art next year. Her advice is don't be afraid to speak your mind and most of all, keep your individuality.

Debbie Reid remembers the time when she and Pat were invited by Mr. Reesor to spend the day in a kindergarten class, for yelling in the halls. She enjoyed elections, cheerleading and sports at CCI. Next year, she will be taking education in Edmonton.

Beverly Aaston enjoys playing cards, girls' football, floor hockey, but dislikes homework. If she could re-live her high school years she would change her exams and assignments. Next year, she would like to attend university.

Pat Andrews had a keen interest in schoolwork . . . he would sit in his desk, and watch it go by, hours on end! Pat left Central while he was ahead in the world.

Bill Claffey's most memorable experience will be leaving school this year. He advises the undergrads to work harder and pray harder. He plans to join the military, but will probably see the world from the back of a garbage truck.

Dave Cooper enjoys doing as little as possible, but enjoys spares and breaks. His favourite teacher is Mrs. Stewart because she is a good teacher. If he could re-live his high school years, he'd pass every subject the first time. Dave plans to become rich, but will go to the S.T.I. next year.

Carol Davis's most memorable incident was winning the Provincial Curling play-offs in 1969. She enjoys curling, reading, homework and interhouse sports. Her favourite teacher is Mr. Wallace because he teaches so that everyone can understand and he doesn't try to bug you. Her plans for the future include going to the U. of S. at Saskatoon to take Pharmacy.

Betty Ecklund enjoys talking during school hours. She advises the undergrads not to talk in Mr. Mokeiky's classes and to take Physics instead of Chemistry. Next year, she plans to take nursing training at Toronto's Hospital for Sick Children, but will probably just become Mrs. S.

John Kroshus enjoys reading, tennis, swimming, hitch-hiking, basketball, listening to music, floor hockey, badminton and Algebra! John's most memorable experience was failing physics. In the near future, he plans to hitch-hike around Europe and South America and some day go to university.

Gord Lennox has been a long time student here. It's a good thing he really enjoyed those refreshing smoke breaks, otherwise Gord would have left CCI sooner.

Richard Ling enjoys reading and History. He advises the undergrads to keep up their studies. His teachers all seem equally good. He hopes to find a job next year.

Patty McLelland will always remember when she played the piano at last year's Gym Show and Colour Night. She enjoys television, music, reading, choir and most of her subjects. She plans to take Social Work at Mount Royal College in Calgary.

David Fitzharris likes having Mr. Watson teach him Chemistry. He enjoys reading. His advice for undergrads is to get Mr. Watson for Chemistry. For the future, David plans to rule the world, as well as attend university.

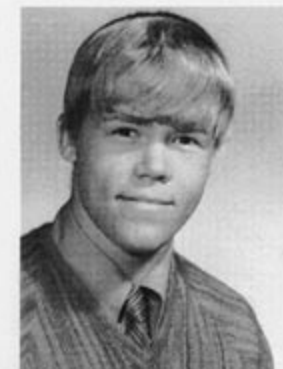

Cathy Gambles enjoyed watching the Peacock teachers' reactions to Peacock's walkout. In her spare time, she goes down to the "Environment". If she could re-live her high school years she would have come to Central earlier because of the semester system. Next year, she plans to go to university to take Education.

John Gibson's favorite teacher was Mr. N. Nelson because of his humorous jokes. John enjoys doing homework??? in his spare time. He enjoyed Lits during school. John plans to work next year.

Daryl Halstead (Showboat) enjoys doing nothing in particular, but doesn't mind interhouse sports and breaks during school hours. He advises the undergrads to keep away from the doors in the halls so that the Grade 12's can move freely. Daryl will be coming back to CCI to complete Grade 12.

Terry Paice's most memorable experience was at Color Night in Grade 10 when he had a song sung to him telling him how strong and muscular he was for winning his first provincial wrestling title. His favourite teacher is Mr. D. Kerr because he's such a great guy and coach. Terry will probably end up on "Stampede Wrestling".

Peggy Prowse likes skiing, interhouse sports, gym club and trapping boys. If she could relive her school days, she would work harder at school and study more. Her ambition for the future is to return to Central and be as mean as some teachers were to her.

Linda Pryor — Enjoys parties, spares, breaks, and 4 o'clock. We don't know what her plans are for the future. Her ambition is to leave Central, for good, this year.

Bill Reaume enjoys being a superstar so much he is always seeking the attentions of the students of Central. His plans for the future include getting his hair styled and having his white shoes cleaned.

Craig Hill will always remember the time he played basketball against Les Tait. He likes walking in the halls and working in the Biology Lab. His favourite teacher is Mr. Hill because his clothes are in style. He plans to become a drag racer. He would improve his years at school by having more breaks and spares.

Shirley Hume's most memorable experience was getting suspended for soaping the school windows on Hallowe'en. She enjoys skiing and eating chocolate bars at breaks. She plans to enter nursing.

Ken Janzen's most memorable experience was summer school and coming late for a final exam. He enjoys fooling around with watches and locks. His favourite teacher is Mr. Wallace because he finally passed his grade 11 chemistry.

John Johnson's most memorable experience was failing physics. He enjoys transposing the distance formula and making ripple tanks. If he could relive his school years he would study physics. He would advise undergrads not to drop physics. He plans to teach physics in the future.

Yvonne Reaume's most memorable experience was passing physics. She enjoys swimming, sewing, Job's Daughters, parties and helping to kidnap friends. She likes Mr. Currie because he makes his classes interesting. She plans to be a lab technician at the U. of S. in Saskatoon.

Harley Rogers remembers when he was fooling around on the top floor and he threw a reinomer out the window only to have it hit a teacher coming into the school. He enjoys a few sports; floor hockey and badminton in particular. His future plans include becoming a Nuclear Engineer in the Aerospace division of the Air Force.

Theresa Shopa enjoys being outside doing anything, but also likes reading and "horsing around" inside. She advises the undergrads to buy a French-English dictionary. She plans to see the world (by an atlas) and get a job.

Barry Taylor enjoys driving, hockey and sleeping. He likes Mr. Currie because he has a very carefree approach. In the future, he hopes to make a few million bucks, but will start at the beginning by attending the S.T.I. next year.

Brad Trail — Enjoys snow and water skiing and other sports. His most memorable incident was when he went into the girls' bathroom in grade 9. Next year Brad plans to finish his grade 12.

Dave Turner's most memorable experience was learning the fox-trot with Mrs. Rolly in Grade 10. His advice to the undergrads is to watch out for Mr. Watson's sneeze. His ambition is to become an R.C.M.P. officer.

Dwight Wandler is a war game fanatic. He'll play anyone who will play. His favourite teacher is Mr. Currie because he has learned more English from Mr. Currie than any other teacher could teach him. Next year he hopes to go to Royal Roads to take a degree in Electrical Engineering.

George Dash enjoys doing last night's homework. He likes Mr. Currie because he let him act in the sword fight scene in Hamlet. He advises the undergrads to leave the chocolate bar machines alone and to take three sciences. His plans for the future include university.

Barry Donaldson's favourite pastime seems to be liping off to teachers and we all know how much he enjoys the short skirts. His favourite teacher was probably Mr. Nelson due to all the extra essay assignments he got.

Janice Emerson would like to take an interior decorating course or art course. She enjoys riding horses, water skiing and reading books. If Jan could change the school system she would choose her own subjects and teachers.

Debra Firth participated in many sports activities during her brief stay at Central. Although she was new, she made many friends.

4D

Mac Anderson's most memorable experience during his high school years was being picked up by the ear by Mr. Robinson for cheating. In his spare time, besides his trips to South Hill, he is sometimes seen in the bar. In his many years at Central he has become bored with the activities here.

Karen Birkett can't tell us her most memorable incident. Her favourite teacher was Mr. Woof, because of the way he expressed his feelings. Next year Karen plans to work, but she'll likely be raising Ron Jr. and cleaning house.

Shirley Boyce's most memorable experience was the field trip for biology to Besant. She enjoys writing letters, talking, and taking breaks. She advises the undergrads to not spend all their time studying. Her plan for the future is to do as little as possible.

Joanne Hall remembers the Grade ten elections and the water fights at her house. Her favourite pastimes are: Saskatoon, parties, dances, and boys, not necessarily in that order. Her plans for the future are to take a fashion merchandising course of some kind and move to Saskatoon.

Ken Hamilton remembers the time Mr. B. Clarke sat on a desk in grade nine history and broke it! His favourite teacher was Mr. Parker because he understood students and was "cool". He advises the undergrads not to take any guff, and don't argue with Mr. Knuttilla. He plans to join the RCMP.

Lois Holstad liked Mr. Hill, his classes in biology and his exams? Her favorite school activities were talking and chewing gum in class. Lois left CCI after Christmas.

Fran Kemper liked all her teachers during high school. She enjoys reading, writing letters and watching T.V. She is getting married in August of 1971.

Julie Brundage's most memorable experience during high school was being chosen as Zone 10's Homecoming Queen. She enjoys boys, parties and cheerleading. Next year, she plans to work in a bank in Regina.

Bev Clarke was a new student at CCI this year. She left after completing the first semester, but like all other students, Bev enjoyed the breaks and spares in class time.

Dan Campbell is fond of sleeping, talking and whatever is nasty. He hasn't had a most memorable experience yet, but it will likely be the day he leaves. Dan plans to become an electronic technologist.

Jerry Cox enjoys sports, interhouse activities, breaks and noon. His advice for the undergrads is to do what you can today, for tomorrow may be too late. He hopes to finish grade 12 and get far away from Central by joining the RCMP.

Spence Koehler's most memorable experience was when he accidentally stuck his foot in Mr. Mokolky's garbage can! He enjoys going out, doing his homework, and five minute breaks. His favorite teacher is Mr. Hill because he's such a great guy. Spence would like to join the police force, but will probably end up being zoo keeper at Shelley's house.

Ron Mayson enjoys standing in the halls and watching the girls go by. He leaves us with only one word of advice: "Study real hard and be a good student like me." He plans to be a rich bachelor??

Roly Mitton plays the guitar in his spare time. He hopes to travel with a band. His favourite teacher was Mr. Reesor because he didn't have him for any classes. Roly left while he was ahead.

Bill Moulding's big achievements for grades nine, ten and eleven were getting through them. During school hours he likes to run to the chocolate bar machine and spend his hard earned money. He plans to be a wealthy playboy.

Stan Neuman thinks attending a school where the students are old enough to be his own students is rather weird. He enjoys outdoor activities such as skiing and ski-doing. He likes Mr. Currie because of his teaching technique. He enjoys doing what he's happy doing.

Dan Pierce says he enjoys almost everything except school. Dan has no memorable experiences and no advice for the undergrads, but to stay away from school.

Ron Ritchie's most memorable experience was having to struggle through Mr. Sudom's grade eleven geography class. He enjoys playing pool, weekends and football games. He hopes to become a professional traveller and head south where it's warm in the winter.

Dave Smith will always remember coaching the girls' football team. He enjoys going to coke and chip parties in his spare time. If Dave could re-live his high school years, he'd make it in four years instead of five. He plans to work before university, and then marry a rich, dying widow.

Pat Belbin enjoyed the breaks and spares and some of her teachers during her brief stay here. Pat left Central after completing the first semester.

Janis Chow came to Central this year from Peacock to complete her grade twelve. Her plans for next year are to relax and maybe to get a job.

Joann Cozac will always remember the time her shorts fell off during a volleyball game. She enjoyed sports, Winter Carnival and anything that got her out of class during school hours. She was editor of the Clarion and will probably end up as typesetter for the Bor-harm paper.

Doug Crowe enjoyed sports, sleeping and interhouse activities. Mrs. Stewart was his favorite teacher at CCI. He advises the undergrads to live it up while they can. Doug's ambition is to get out of grade twelve and make lots of money.

Lorne Smith enjoys weekends, and trying to keep his truck running. His favourite teacher is Mr. Currie because of his methods of teaching. He advises the undergrads not to let Miss Heaps lay any "heavies" on you. His plans for next year is to farm.

Myrna Smith is another one of those people who enjoys breaks, noons and four o'clock, getting Biology exams back and talking in class. Myrna has no definite plans for the future.

Jack Taman's most memorable incident was listening to Gary B. tell Mr. Knuttila how to knit. He enjoys playing hockey and inter-house sports. Jack plans to join the airforce.

Brian Wait's favourite pastime is girl watching. His activities during school hours are "anything and everything". He wishes he could pass more often and not get married before he leaves high school. Next year he plans to get out of high school and go catch girls at Peacock.

Paul Dahlman makes a habit of falling down the stairs at 4:00 and he tells us it is very embarrassing. He warns the undergrads to watch the teachers.

Garry Daniels most memorable experience was playing for the Cyclones in the provincial finals. His favorite pastimes are playing poker with the guys from Vanier and eating lunch. Garry wants to become a teacher and come back to CCI to haunt the rest of the staff.

Floyd Doyle does mechanics work in his spare time. His ambition is to become an electrical engineer and work in the oil rigs next year. His one memorable high school experience was meeting his girl friend.

Lindy Doyle enjoyed everything at Central, and she likes reading and sewing in her spare time. If she could re-live her high school years she would work harder. Lindy's advice to the undergrads is to make good use of high school. She plans to attend university and become a systems analyst.

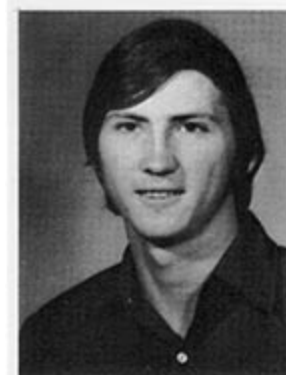

Herb Williamson — If he could re-live his school years he wouldn't take any sciences, maths and get done in four years. Herb likes playing in a band and hopes to be a great rock star.

4E

Gary Bathgate enjoys wine, women, and (?) He thinks a beer machine would improve Central a lot. Gary has been known to lose money in strange ways on the weekends. He would like to go into the field of electronics at university or the S.T.I.

Art Dunlop's favorite activity is girl watching, but he goes to parties, plays pool and rides motorcycles. He suggests that anyone who volunteers their car for a school project, should have some gas in it.

Don Finlay's most memorable experience of high school will be leaving it. He likes playing pool and going to parties, and during school he enjoyed bugging the teachers and sleeping or talking. He plans to take a commerce or business administration course at university or the S.T.I.

Linda Garner remembers the time that they danced to "Alley Cat" and "The Stripper" in a lit and messed up the ending. Her favorite teacher was Mr. Hill because "he looks so cute when he blushes". Next year she plans to work in Saskatoon.

Rick Grafton will always remember doing the Tango in a lit. He enjoyed sports, house activities, and watching the girls. His favorite teacher was Mr. Currie because he made lit interesting. Rick is going to become a lawyer?

Linda Harris enjoyed the spares, breaks in school. Who doesn't? Her plans for next year are to relax, recuperate from school, and work.

Linda L'heureux likes going to good dances, and her favorite school activity is spares. Mrs. Stewart was her favorite teacher because she is a fantastic algebra teacher. Her advice to undergrads is to keep working — you might pass eventually.

Randy McGill will always remember the first day of school in grade nine. The things he liked most at school were the breaks. In the future, Randy wants to go North. Randy's plans for next year — "If I only knew".

Joy McPherson also remembers forgetting the steps to "Alley Cat" and "The Stripper". She would also like to see more comfortable desks, and more spares and freedom to come and go at school. Joy plans to attend university, and then travel.

Ken Stein is an avid hockey player. He participates in inter-house sports, but enjoys the breaks and spares and girl watching as well.

Carol Zumstein enjoys reading in her spare time. Her most memorable experience was having to write only Chemistry and Physics in Grade 10. She hopes to become a good cook.

Gerry Martins quit school last semester, but we all know how much he enjoyed watching the female traffic in CCI's halls. Like all other guys, Gerry liked the breaks and spares as well.

Wendy Mills regrets coming back to school after being out for six months. Her favorite school activity was smoking the washrooms at the breaks. Her advice to undergrads is to try to make high school years the best years of your life.

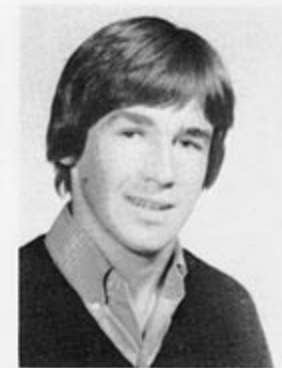

Ken Nikolic didn't fill out his year-book questionnaire, but we all know how much he likes being involved in activities and school. If he could relive his high school days, he should fill out the questionnaire.

Allan Reid enjoys working in the youth theatrical group, YATS and Theatre 67. He has put on some fine performances in their plays. He does have a peculiar habit of sitting in his car waiting for the ants to cross the street. He plans to join the RCMP.

Carol Acton's favorite in-school activities are gossiping and exchanging jokes. She enjoys getting into minor car accidents with her dad's car in her spare time. Next year, she plans to go to university in Regina.

Doug Armitage's favourite teacher was Miss Bonderoff because she knew a lot of fairy-tales. He enjoys studying hard in his spare time. In the near future, he would like to become a millionaire.

Mary-Gaye Bastedo will never forget when she almost had an accident with one of the teacher's cars while on an errand. She enjoyed breaks, hearing gossip and interhouse sports. Her favourite teacher was Mr. Woolf because he jingled his change in his pocket. She will go to Vancouver next year.

Debby Berglind advises the undergrads to sit by the windows — it makes classes more interesting. She enjoys driving around with Y.A.T.S. signs on her car. She is undecided about her future.

Frank Riley feels that all of his high school experiences are worth remembering. During school he enjoyed physics, biology, and the breaks. Frank plans to work for a few years and then join the R.C.M.P.

Janice Scott's most memorable experience was being called Janass while walking through the gym hall. She advises the girls of Central not to let the boys "own" the gym hall forever. Janice enjoyed all school activities, and getting to know new kids. She plans to take a nursing course at U. of S. next year.

Wendy Scott enjoys skiing, driving, softball, and doing nothing during school. Her favorite teacher was Mrs. Stewart because she was easy to get along with. Her advice to undergrads is to try not to get caught doing anything they shouldn't.

Pat Spencer had a lot of memorable experiences during his high school years. In his spare time he does "the usual wild things". Pat's ambition was censored, but next year he plans to go to the S.T.I., as well as get started on his ambition.

Pamela Bromley enjoys being active in the local youth drama group and reading. Her favorite teacher was Mr. Knutilla. She will be going to the University of Manitoba to study Social Work.

Greg Busse enjoyed looking at and chasing girls. His favourite teacher was Mr. McDougall because of his unique thoughts about different viewpoints. He excels in skiing, swimming and fixing his car. He plans to become a dentist.

Glenda Dahlman enjoys milking chickens in her spare time. If she could relive her school years she would have longer breaks and fewer teachers. Her favorite teacher was Mrs. Stewart because she is a good teacher. She plans to go to Regina next year.

Joan Davidson enjoys riding around in a 1957 Chev. She liked Mr. Parker because of his two period discussions. She plans to attend the S.I.A.S. in Saskatoon to study nursing.

Val Dunn enjoys reading and driving cars in her spare time and the breaks during school hours. Val's plans for next year are to start her apprenticeship as an undertaker. Good luck, Val!

Janice Gardner enjoyed sleeping in Mr. Knuttila's classes. She liked to read, draw and drive around. She remembers when Mr. Mokolky cut her eraser in half because he felt she should share. She will be going to B.C. next year to get her B.A.

Rick Jenner's favorite activity during school hours was girl watching! He liked Mrs. McIver because she had ultra-brite sex appeal. He plans to farm next year.

Barb Johnson's most memorable experience was her trip down East in November of 1970. She curls, plays the piano, reads and goes snowmobiling in her spare time. She would like to become an airline stewardess in the near future.

Lynda Powers enjoyed interhouse sports, breaks and talking during classes. Her favorite teacher was Mr. Hill because of his looks! Next year, she plans to go to Calgary to become a telephone operator.

Cheryl Railton enjoys going out with Gary and watching T.V. in her spare time, and playing badminton and volleyball during school hours. She will attend Grey Nun's Hospital for a two-year nursing course.

Charlotte Schaitel would like to have done away with final exams. She enjoys S.T.I. dances and C.C.I. football games. She plans to go to the S.T.I. next year to take a business course.

Caroline Silzer will never forget being an exchange student. During school hours, she enjoys talking, talking and more talking. Her favourite teacher was Mrs. Stewart because she made everything so understandable. Caroline will be going to Regina next year to work in a bank.

Barb Klein's most memorable experience was being pushed out of the window in Algebra. She enjoys boys, dances and buying clothes in her spare time. Her favourite teachers were Mrs. Stewart and Mr. Wallace. She plans to work in Saskatoon next year.

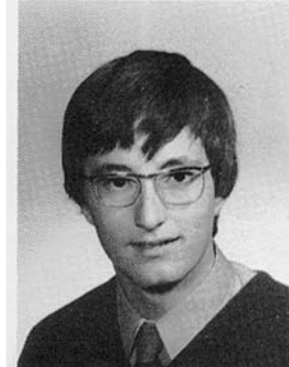

Heather Lawson liked Mrs. Stewart because she got fairly good marks with her. She wished that the girls could have been able to wear slacks all year round before this year. She would like to become an airline stewardess.

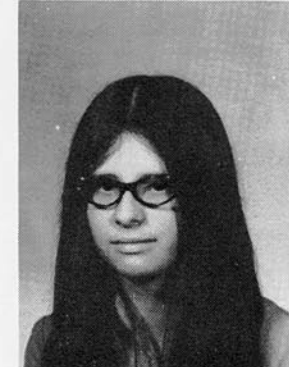

Tom McCord enjoys all sports, especially football and wrestling. He thought Mrs. Stewart was a fantastic teacher. His advice to the undergrads is to work hard in and for the school. Tom plans to attend the U. of S.

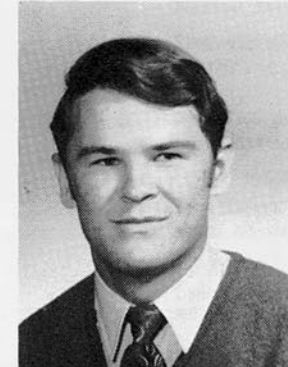

Mary Lee Meikle will never forget winning the Senior Girls' Provincial basketball championships this year. She enjoys writing letters and sleeping. Next year she plans to go to Saskatoon.

Tom Simpson will always remember the "field trip" in Mr. Hill's biology class in grade eleven. Who will forget?! Tom enjoys exercising his jaw muscles and drawing pictures. He has no definite plans for next year.

Shirley Stewart enjoyed spares during school hours. Her favorite teacher was Mrs. Middleton. Next year, she plans to come back to Central to get her Lit. and French. Good luck.

Mike Watling enjoyed playing all sports during high school. His most memorable experience was the Grade 11 field trip. He plans to become a Wildlife Technologist.

Jan Wells will always remember having an appendix attack during school hours. She enjoys sewing, skiing and going out with a certain guy in her spare time. Next year, she plans to go to Reliance School in Saskatoon.

Don Montgomery bowls and swims in his spare time. He enjoyed Mr. Currie's classes because he used modern music to teach. Don plans to work for a year and then go back to school.

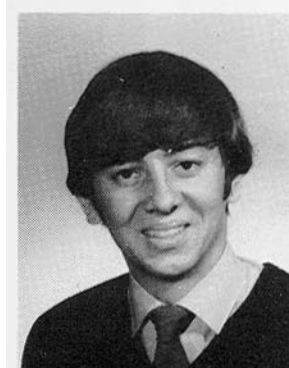

Derek Morrison will never forget being in Mr. Watson's Chemistry classes. His favourite teacher was Mr. Parker because he was really understanding. He would like to become a lawyer.

Mary Ann Murrell liked to comb her hair during breaks. She liked Mr. Hill, because he was a "sweet-heart". Her most memorable experience was falling backwards off a stool in physics with a dress on. She would like to further her education and then travel.

Marleen Gen liked Mrs. Stewart because of her smile. She enjoyed interhouse sports, talking and reading during classes. She advises the undergrads to "have as much fun as you can!" Next year, she plans to work in Saskatoon.

Barclay White enjoys curling, skiing, riding his motorbike and parties. He enjoyed the bus trip to Yorkton when our team played in the provincials. In the future he would like to be a recreation director or join the R.C.M.P.

Gloria Whitehead liked Mr. Knuttila best because he was her neighbour. In her spare time, she likes going to Regina. She plans on being married soon. Happy days.

Bev Zimmerman's ambition is to get hips. She enjoyed cheerleading and inter-house sports during school hours. Mr. N. Nelson was her favourite teacher because he had a sweet smile. She wants to go to Vancouver next year to take fashion merchandising.

MISSING:
Ray Birley
John Butler
Dave Cant
Caulette Flowers
Bonnie Gemmell
Rick Jukes
Randy Justason
Bruce Locke
Karen McKinnon
Jim MacLowich
Linda Merchel
Doug Mintenko
Daryl Murphy
Barry Robinson
David Schroeder
Ed Senger
Gord Silzer
Judy Wright
Joan Zumstien